Minister's Wife Is First Coed

The wife of a Presbyterian minister has enrolled as the first woman student in St. Mary's College, Orchard Lake. She is Mrs. Alma Auchard, whose husband is the Rev. Edward Auchard, Presbyterian pastor of Orchard Lake Community Church. The church is located a short distinct of the control of Anthony Kosnik.

Asked if she feels strange in a Catholic school with men students only, Mrs. Auchard's answer is "Not at al."

Father Chrobot, the dean of the college said, "We are very happy to have Mrs. Auchard with us. I am sure she will bring to the classroom a viewpoint and perspective, both as a woman and as a Presbyterian, that will be most beneficial to our students. I find this kind of arrangement so much more an, that will be most beneticia to our students. I find this kind of arrangement so much more human and natural, so much more in keeping with the lib-eral arts tradition." Mrs. Auchard is working towards a degree in education and has studied in other schools, including Wayne State University.

The Free Church is conscious of guilt."

The Free Church is, however, unconscious of any guilt in its handbook under "Communal Eating." There is the following:

"The cooks should get the cook of the property of course."

Religion Update

"Local churches are increasingly withdrawing their financial support," complains the nationally renowned Berkeley Free Church, in its "Collective Handbook." Our goal: the melting and renewal of the denominations from the bottom up.

spiracy, of course!

IF "EXPROPRIATING"
were not clear enough, the meaning of "ripping off" is defined elsewhere in this Collective Handbook. In reference to funds raised by collectives: "Great care should be exercised in handling it. This is noney held. in trust for the People's Church. Individual rip-offs amount to ripping off'
the people."
And despite this sanctioning

of "ripping off" or "expropria-tion" of food from the Berke-ley community at large, this same handbook piously as-

same nanobook plously as-serts;

"The man who loves his neighbor as himself must make his decision and act in the knowledge that his ulti-mate responsibility is for the whole scene and not only for himself."

himself."

This will no doubt appear ironic to the long-suffering Berkeley merchant who has either been unable to obtain insurance coverage or whose insurance coverage or whose business has been entirely reuned by assorted sand mostly non-student liwes or rioters. The Free Church may deplore the ripping off of its own funds, but it can hardly be considered a community conscience. It has precious little to, say, for example, about such things as the casual murder of Police Officer Ronald Tsukamoto. Who was shot down while talking to a motorist.

ON THE OTHER HAND, the Free Church's oncern for its own funds "held in trust" is certainly more precise han that of the leaders of the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches. They give their members' money to the Berkeley Free Church which, with considerable chutzpah, advises: "It is no longer necessary to pay tribute of time and vises: "It is no longer necessary to pay tribute of time and money to dead ecclesiastical structures."

BUT THE Free Church soon began to reveal its goals as being of far greater magnitude than mere pastoral care. "Capitalism, is a form of anarchy." proclaims its Collective Handbook, published earlier this year, just after the Free Churchers had hung a picture of Ho Chi Minh on the Church. "Capitalism and Church. "Capitalism and American society have failed to achieve a just social order." Rev. York, an eloquent and extremely hirsule young man, writes: "Our revolution consists of both proving an alternative church and subverting the old one. .. We are no longer a church, a full much you was consisted to the church with the church and subverting the old one. .. We are no longer a church, a full much you was a church, a full much you was consisted to the church was consisted to the church was consisted to the church and subverting the old one. ..
