KEVIN SCOTT MOTL

Kevin Motl, 16, of Northville died Dec. 8 in Children's Hospital of Michigan, Detroit.

Kevin's mother said he lived on borrowed time since age five, when he was diagnosed with Friedreich's ataxia, a rare form of muscular dystrophy. But until his death, Kevin, who used a wheelchair since sixth grade made the best of it. The Northville teen created his own business, KSJ Inc., selling computer graphics on cards and posters to family and friends.

In September, as a sophomore at John Glenn High School in Westland, Kevin got the necessary 150 student signatures to run for the student council, but a hospital stay prevented him from running in the election.

While a student at John Marshall Junior High School, he was an alternate on the student council. Last year he won awards in the spring and fall regional Cerebral Palsy Les Autres, competitions for physically impaired children held at Eastern Michigan University and Michigan

State University.

Survivors include his parents, Jackie and Charles; brother, Dean; a sister, Dawn Hodvedt; grandmother, Josephine Verkerke.

Services were Dec. 10 at the Heene-Sundquist Funeral Home, Farmington, Mass was celebrated at St. Colette Catholic Church, Livonia, with the Rev. Gerard Cupple officiating. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Southfield.

Memorials may be made to the Cardiology Dept. at Children's Hospital or the Muscular Dystrophy Association.
