

upcoming things to do

- ACTORS NEEDED
 Will-O-Way Theatre in Birmingham still has some positions open for its production of "My Three Angels," musical comedy by Sam and Bella Spewack. The play opens Wednesday, Dec. 31. For more information call 644-4418.
- "BIG CHILL"
 Room rates will plunge to record lows Saturday, Dec. 20, through Tuesday, Dec. 30, at the Novi Hilton's "Big Chill." Daily room rates will be based on two times the previous day's temperature. For example, if the temperature one day is 10 degrees, the next day's room rate is $20. An indoor swimming pool, hot tub, sauna and exercise room will help keep the chill off.
- FILM SERIES
 The fifth annual Adat Shalom Jewish Film Festival featuring fiction picture views of Jewish women opens at 7 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 4, in the Youth Lounge of the synagogue in Farmington Hills. Shows will be two early film shorts by D.W. Griffith, "Romance of a Jewess" and "A Child of the Ghetto," and the Universal Pictures' 1927 feature, "Surrender." Dan Greenberg of the Adat Shalom Adult Study Commission, who is also the Observer & Eccentric Film critic, will introduce the films and comment on them. The series second program on Sunday, Jan. 11, will feature the 1939 American film "Miracle Express" and the third program, Sunday, Jan. 28, presents Molly Picon in "Yiddle with His Fiddle." The film series is open to the public without charge. For more information, call 651-5100.
- "FIDDLER"
 Bob Carroll, who has just completed a national tour of "La Cage Aux Folles," will star as Tevye in the Birmingham Theatre production of "Fiddler on the Roof," opening Saturday, Dec. 27, and continuing through Jan. 25. He replaces Paul Lipson, who is recuperating from cellulitis.
- JAZZ PARTY
 The Attic Theatre will present "A Midwinter Jazz Party" featuring the all-Detroit cast of "Ma Rainey's Black Bottom," on Sunday at the theater in Detroit. The party, which includes food and beverages, starts after the closing performance of "Vaudeville" by Laurence Carr. "Ma Rainey's Black Bottom" opens Jan. 9 at the Attic. For more information call 875-8284.
- JAZZ DISCONTINUED
 Larry Nozera and Friends, a jazz group, no longer will be appearing at Hunter's Run in Livonia. Saxophone player Nozera, a Farmington Hills resident, performed there with a weekly, revolving group of musicians. Nozera said, "The restaurant is in the midst of a transition period, which resulted in the decision." He continues to play 5-8 p.m. Fridays at the Ann Arbor Holiday Inn West and every Sunday for brunch at Detroit's Hotel Pontchartrain.
- ACTOR'S TRUNK
 The children's classic, "Snow

- White and the Seven Dwarfs," presented by Henry Martin's Actors Trunk Company, returns at 1 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 27, and 2 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 28, to the Cleary Auditorium in Windsor. Tickets are available at South Shore Books in Windsor in advance and at the Cleary Box office one hour prior to show time. For more information, call (519) 253-9102. Martin is a Bloomfield Hills resident.
- ZOO ADOPTERS
