Compliments of The Birmingham-Bloomfield Board of REALTORS®

Home of REALTORS® Q. Do real estate agents carry some sort of identification? A. Yes, every agent carries a miniature copy of their license (called a pocket card) when acting in the capacity of a real estate agent. The cards are issued by the Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulation. The card indicates the agent's company, displays a permanent ID number and the expiration date of the license.
