Rip-Roarin' Rodeo comes to the center

Family Desert Theatre scheduled for March in Farmington Community Center is "Rip-Roarin' Rodeo Review." The audience will be expected to raise a ruckus along with the zany western characters portrayed by the Ann Arbor Goodtime Players.

Audience participation in the style of the 18th-century melodrama moves along with the story about Anne Oakley, Pecos Bill, and Calamity Jane who band together in an attempt to become entertainers.

Curtain for the musical is 7 p.m. Friday, March 13. Desserts are served following the performance.

February's Family Desert Theatre was sold out.

Reservations are $10 for a family and must be pre-paid on or before March 6 in the center, 24705 Farmington Road. The center is also accepting reservations for the April show, "Musical Rainbows - A Family Affair."

Nationwide Finnfest hosted by metro Finns

The Finnish-American community of metropolitan Detroit hosts Finnfest USA '87. A nationwide Finnish heritage convention and festival, the four day Finnfest USA is set for June 25-28 on the grounds of Schoolcraft College in Livonia.

"Finnfest USA '87" is dedicated to the preservation and enrichment of Finnish culture and tradition. Its varied programs offer entertainment and activities for people of all ages, Finns and non-Finns alike.

Concerts, choral groups, folk dance and folk music, theater and sports competitions are all part of Finnfest USA. The best in Finnish and Finnish-American talent will be featured, with participants from many local performing groups, as well as nationally and from Finland.

The festival also includes many exhibits, lectures, arts and crafts and gift bazaar, all devoted to Finnish history, culture and products. A full schedule of religious services, both in English and Finnish will also be offered.

Food and refreshment of all kind will abound at Finnfest USA '87. In addition to banquets and dinner dances, fast food and local Finnish specialties and delicacies will be available. Meals will also be served at Schoolcraft College and other festival sites.

Day-care facilities are available at Schoolcraft College for children up to 11 years of age. Parking is also free at all times, and RVs may park on the festival grounds if sanitation is self-contained.

Admission fee for the four full days of Finnfest USA '87 are $20 for adults or $10 for students if made before June 5 by calling Finnfest, 348-1037.

Entrance at the door is $10 a day for adults, and $5 for children.

Washington revered

George Washington was the commander-in-chief of the military forces of all the colonies. The Quaker town Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution reveres this great general and patriot.
