OU Continuum Center workshops in full swing

chiester.
Registration is $45 and may be used by calling $70-3033.
The Ellinor Waters, center director, ill present the workshop.

JRRRY McNEILLIS, creative planting specialist, will present a working on "Storyboarding An Experience in Creative Thinking and Planning," Friday, Feb. 27. It runs from P-30 a.m. to 12-30 p.m. at the Caliald Center, Oakland University, Rocheiter. Registration is $50. Call $70.810.

McNellis started the McNellis Co. New Brighton, Pa., in 1978 and

MEA topics: politics, pay, excellence

"Achieving Ercellence and Pay Equity through Legislation" is the theme of the Michigan Education Association annual legislative and political action conference through Feb. 21.

political action conference through Pet. 21.

ional delegation and members of the State Board of Education and Retirement Beard.
On Saturday, conference attenders will be treated to a Candid, inside look at politics by the host of TVOIT fun Record. Tim Satubet, Joing Sunbick will be Ed. Petykiewicz, intate capital bareau chief of Booth Newspapers.
State Treasurer Robert Bownan will present into sessions on Friday atternoon (1:15-5 p.m.) in the LeSale Ballroom on Tiow the school complete retirement system is fundamental and how the funds are invested.
Other noteworthy conference sessions will focule on automptica as industrial proof by transportation seems, some of the conference in the system of the conference in the Special Intial, teacher preparation and in-service training, and grass-rook politics.

Stencil gets parks post

Daniel J. Steneti of Union Lake has been promited to chief of parts for the Oakland County. Parks and Recreation Commission. He will oversee three day-use parks — Addison Oaks north of Rochester, Groveland Oaks near Holly and Independence Oaks near Clarkston.

Steneti Joined the parks system in 1977 and most recently was a recreation supervisor. He has a master's degree in recreation administration from Western Illinois University. He success Arnold Johnson, who recently retired.

State fuel prices drop

Average statu self-serve gasoline prices fell for the second week in a row, reports AAA Michigan.

Its weekly "und gauge" survey of 300 stations along major state travel no-lead, and regular declined by 0.2 cents.

The second of the second second of the second of the low full-serve and com-89,9 cents.

Detroit-area full-serve no-lead and regalar are unchanged from last week. No-lead averages $1.221 per gallon and varies from 3.39 cents to $1.519. Fegular averages $1.144 per gallon shy ranges from 79,9 cents to $1.459.

Out of state, no-lead averages 90.8 cents per gallon, 18.9 cents below the dull-serve bost. It varies from 81.9 cents to $1.199.

Call the Continuum Center for reg-istration information at 370-3033.

THREE WORKSHOPS in business communication will be offered by OU in the Birmingham Unitarian Church, Woodward Avenue at Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills. All run 7-10

Pine, Bioomnea manager Tuesday, Peb. 24, "Active Listening:" Tuesday, March 3, "Business Writing:" and Tuesday, March 17, "Making Effective Presentations."

Registration is $50 for individual workshops or $135 for all three.

REGISTRATION IS open at Oak-land University for the Feb. 28 Certi-fied Internal Auditor examination review program, which prepares in-formal auditors for the May 14-15 certification exam.

The professional CIA review pro-gram is offered by OU's Division of Continuing Education in conjunction with the Detroit Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors. It is the only preparation for CIA certifica-tion offered locally for the public by tony dispersation for the certain and proper and the public by medians cally for the public by medians to the Liveck program will be conducted Salunday, Feb. 28 to May 8, 8-10 a.m. and from 10 a.m. on ono on the campus near Rochester, east of 1-75 (crit 79). Tuition fee is $15. For a brochure and to register, call $70-310, between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. weekdays. University faculty and professionals who specialize in internal auditing will instruct. Parts one and two will cover theory and practice of internal auditing part there, management, quantitative methods and part formation systems; and part four, accounting, finance and economics.

A PREPARATION workshop for the April 11 Graduate Record Exam is being offered by OU's Division of Continuing Education. The work-shops offer insights into exam ques-tions. Timed practice tests are of-fered tions. Timed practice tests are of-fered.

The workshops will start at 9 a.m.
on five Saturdays, March 7 to April 4, on campus.
Registration and materials fee is
495. An optional math refresher
11.30-810 milabel for 435 on March 11.30-810 milabel for 435 on Ma

"How Do Insurance mpanies Create Jobs in Michigar

'Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company is financing industrial parks in Michigan involving 19,700 permanent jobs?"

Because we at Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company care about Michigan, we've been investing in a number of industrial and technological parks Our Company provides developers and building contractors with the financing they need to buy land, build roads, and provide other improvements.

"When developers sell parcels to small and medium-sized companies, Alexander Hamilton Life and other Michigan financial institutions often provide the additional financing those growing businesses need to build and equip their new facilities.

"Over two million customers throughout all 50 states have invested $1.8 billion in Alexander Hamilton Life assets to assure their own financial

"The premiums from a wide-range of life insurance and investment products, including tax sheltered annulties, 401(k) and IRA retirement plans, provide financial security for our clients and their families.

"With over 600 employees in Farmington Hills, Alexander Hamilton Life is among the top 5% of life insurance companies in America and is rated $\Lambda+$ Superior, the highest rating given by industry authority A.M. Best & Co."

"Everyone in Michigan benefits by Alexander Hamilton Life being headquartered in our state. The 19,700 permanent jobs cited here are just part, a very important part, of the investment portfolio of Alexander Hamilton Life in Michigan, We invest here because we care about Michigan?

A Household International Company 33045 HAMILTON BLVD. • FARMINGTON HILLS, MI 48018 • (313) 553-2000

We Care About Michigan