

police/fire calls

Listed are some of the Farmington-area police and fire reports filed during the past week:

MAN ROBBED
A 24-year-old Northville man was slashed about the face and neck and robbed of his wallet containing $60 after parking his car at Farmington Auto Wash, 28402 Eighth Mile, Feb. 28.

The man was treated at Botzford General Hospital, Farmington Hills. He was slashed from his chest to his throat, possibly with a broken bottle, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

The man was attacked from behind after approaching the dollar bill changer at 6:40 a.m. according to the police report.

HEADED TO TRIAL
A 51-year-old Detroit man is charged with assault with intent to commit murder in Farmington Hills.

Following a preliminary examination in 47th District Court in Farmington, Ralph Salts was bound over for trial. Bond was reduced from $25,000 to $10,000, pending arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court. At his district court arraignment Feb. 9, he pleaded not guilty.

The charge stems from a Jan. 14 incident involving a 42-year-old Detroit woman and a hunting knife along I-695 near I-275, Michigan State Police Trooper Charles Schumacher said.

EXTORTION ALLEGED
A 26-year-old man charged with extortion and assault in Farmington Hills is fighting extradition from California.

Kenneth James Trembath faces charges in Oakland County in connection with an argument that broke out at Independence Green Apartments at 2:30 a.m. Feb. 20, said detective Sgt. Dennis Rochford of the Farmington Hills Police Department.

On Feb. 25, District Judge Michael Hand of Farmington signed a four-count warrant charging Trembath with extortion, assault with intent to do great bodily harm less than murder, assault with intent to commit a felony, and possession of a firearm in the commission of a felony.

The victim, a 29-year-old Detroit man, was treated at Botzford General Hospital, Farmington Hills, Rochford said.

Trembath was arrested on a traffic charge, Feb. 26 in Anaheim, Calif., Rochford said.

If extradited and convicted of extortion, Trembath faces up to 20 years in prison. He faces a mandatory two-year prison term if convicted of felony firearms possession, Rochford said.

THEFT ALLEGED
The Howell men are charged with breaking and entering of a vehicle with damage in connection with the theft of two radar detectors from cars parked at two Farmington Hills motels Feb. 27.

Arrested Feb. 27 in 47th District Court in Farmington, the three — 21, 19 and 17 — stood mute to the charge. Bond was set at $2,000 pending a preliminary examination in the District Court. Copulsion could bring a maximum penalty of up to five years in prison and a $1,000 fine.

The thefts were reported at the Envoys Inn, 38300 Grand River, and the Holiday Inn, 38125 10 Mile. Each radar detector was valued at about $250, according to detective Bert Cook of the Farmington Hills Police Department.

The Detroit and Special Patrol Operational Team officers made the arrests shortly after the thefts, which occurred about 12:30 a.m. Cook said.
