Property loss topped $100,000 in a fire at this one-story house on Eastfarm, investigators said.

Fire heavily damages house

A FIRE of undetermined cause left about $165,000 in property loss at a one-story house at 21201 Eastfarm Monday afternoon.

Damage was heaviest in the kitchen, family room and garage. The roof over the family room was destroyed and two cars in the garage were ruined in the 4:30 p.m. blaze.

No one was home at the time. Firefighters had the flames under control within 30 minutes, said Deputy Chief Peter Baldwin of the Farmington Hills Fire Department.

Investigators aren't certain where the fire started.
