

Cable TV production team close-knit

Have you thanked your production crew lately?

Terry Dean and John Schlapacase and Heiga Miller respect the time volunteers dedicate to the new series, "Around the World."

They have occasional social gatherings for guests and crew, and run off a one-page monthly newsletter announcing anticipated shows. Enthusiastic notes on special guests and who they are brighten the curiosity.

What better way to keep the interest as each leaves the studio with the feeling of accomplishment and relief of completion? The energy captured during a shoot brings out the creative momentum that spurs humor and friendship.

Please share with us some of the delightful and heartwarming happenings while on your shoot — community access minds want to know. Call 473-7156.

"Tri-Outlet News" is looking for people to write stories.

Homework groups, send us your press releases. What issues are important to you? Community access is for the public arena. Send press releases, articles or your video footage of what is happening to: Tri-Outlet News, Channel 12, 23600 Liberty, Farmington 48024.

The Best Thing About Friday the 13th Is Our One Day Only Good Luck Sale.

For 11 Hours Only,
Save 20-66%

Saturday, March 14

If you're superstitious about Friday the 13th, you should see what our employees are doing to improve your luck.

They're taking the whole day today to mark down everything in stock for tomorrow. High prices, they say, are bad luck. So they created prices so low that I'm going a little bit crazy. Here's the scoop.

Connie Balog got things jumping by taking a stunning traditional-style sofa, valued at over $1,000, down the roller-coaster of savings. It's now her lucky number: $392. Your lucky number is saving $608. What goes down must come up: this price is for tomorrow only. Get in early.

Then Reece Plummer joined the act. Claiming severe hallucinations arising from fear of high prices, Reece marked down a beautiful transitional-style sleep-sofa from a frightening $1,013 to a heart-stopping $498. That's 52% off — or $515 in savings. Ask to see this special bargain.

Don Paul swung into action. Taking his cue from the others, he brazenly took on my favorites: handsome velvet rockers, covered in stunning velvets, priced from $419. They're now $190 off — starting at only $229. I fear they'll be gone by noon. Be the first in line — and enjoy some very good luck.

Sally Morche, one of our most rational people, said the full moon was working its magic. "The full moon's not till Sunday, Sally," I said, "and the sale is Saturday." No matter. Sally took selected coffee tables, end tables, and lamp tables, marking them down from $299 to start at only $99. "66% off!" I screamed. I'm still screaming — and so will you, if you miss these incredible values.

Craig Madven brought up a point. "Some people might even hide under the covers because of the date," said he. "Let's let them do it in style." The result: Craig marked down a natural wood bedroom set, traditionally-styled bed, dresser, chest-of-drawers, and mirror, from $1,598 to only $747. That's saving 58% or keeping $851 in your pocket. At these prices, who's afraid? (except of missing the sale tomorrow).

That all-time good guy Dominic Bertucci wants everybody to have good luck every day. So for those of you looking for the perfect dining set, consider this distinctive all-wood dining set, complete. Feeling lucky? It went from $2,359 to only $1,250. That's saving $1,109. Now are you feeling lucky?

I noticed Karen Dabbs, scribbling 2-figure numbers on our lamp tickets. Low 2-figures. "Not enough for the 2-digit lottery," I thought. "Who's going to win this one?" You are. Lamps — including designer ceramic, brass, and glass-bone base lamps — are now marked down to start at only $49. Savings up to 66% off. It figures. Tomorrow Only.

Warren Fetterman looked nervous. "Lie down," said I. He did — and suddenly got a brilliant idea. "Let's reduce all Serta and Simmons mattresses and box springs," said he. "and let's make them all 40-50% off." I looked around, nervously. We have quite a few. That means quite a few of you will save half off. Don't take this lying down. Come in early — and save.

Then I realized: For One Day Only, everybody can have a lucky day. So I marked down all discontinued dining room and bedroom sets a lucky 60% off. Selected accessories, pictures, bric-a-brac... half off. Tomorrow only.

By now, people were feeling very lucky. Flora Fiscelli spotted a handsome recliner, covered in a rugged English-style tweed, at $499. In the lucky flash of an eye, she marked it down to only $249. That's $250 off. Several per store. First come, first saved.

Sharon Kleinow provided the finishing act. All extra sofas, good-as-new, covered in a variety of elegant fabrics, incl. cottons, nylons and prints were $895 to $1,198. They're now from only $458. Early birds will get the warmest greeting — they have to go. Tomorrow.

Lastly, a stunning country sofa, covered in a muted, sophisticated off-white Herculon cover, regularly priced at $775. Very reasonable. We took a vote. $349 was the unreasonable finale. That's an incredible $426 in savings. Don't wait. We open at 10.

What more can I say? — except that we have more. Much more. And all at the same superb savings. So if you feel unlucky... wait a few hours. Set the alarm early. Come in to our spectacular March 14 Good Luck Sale. Because getting these values might be your best luck ever.

Harrison grad to go overseas

Susan Solomon, daughter of Amin and Anila Solomon of Farmington Hills, has been accepted into the Peace Corps.

She will leave for the West African nation of Senegal on March 12 after completing orientation sessions in the United States.

As a Peace Corps volunteer, Solomon will work to improve health and nutrition in rural areas of the country.

A graduate of Harrison High School, Solomon attended Michigan State University and earned a degree in psychology in 1986. Previously, Solomon worked as a counselor for mentally impaired adults.

Currently, 5,700 Americans of all ages and occupational backgrounds serve as Peace Corps volunteers in 61 developing nations. During the next 18 months, the agency expects to place a near record number of Americans in agriculture, forestry, fisheries, education, health and skilled trades programs.

A particularly urgent need exists for U.S. citizens with extensive carpentry, masonry, plumbing or general construction experience.

In agriculture, individuals are sought who have commercial farm experience raising crops, small animals, beef or dairy cattle, bees, or who have participated in 4-H, FFA or FHA programs.

Peace Corps officials note that a college degree is not required for many job assignments. However, an individual should have at least three to five years of full-time work experience. There is no upper age limit.

Applications are sought across the state. Individuals interested in obtaining more information on Peace Corps job opportunities should call (313) 224-7913, Ext. 454, or write: The Peace Corps, 477 Michigan Ave., Room M-74, Detroit 48226.

Caring...
There's something special about the kind of assistance families receive from the staff at McCabe.
It's called "caring," the reflection of a sincere desire on our part to help during a time of crisis.

that's why
The many years that we've been serving families have taught us much about what is of lasting value. We've learned that, of all human relationships, the most precious is the act of one person caring for another.

we're here.
Because we recognize that losing a loved one can suddenly compel you to handle many unfamiliar details under considerable stress, we suggest a consultation in advance of need. We can make the way easier because, for nearly 100 years, we have been counseling families in the fields of care.
