

Star-way to the top

Stars' ability shows in victories

HE 1980-87 All-Observer bination of the new and the diguard.
Five seniors, including three of whom were first-team selections a payer ago, join Redford Bishop Borges's talented junior due of Partish Hickman and Cordell Robinson on the newest dream team.
Westland John Glenn sharpshooter Skeve Hawley, Wayne Memorial son, winning the Western Lakes According to the point-guard Mark Robinson and tlyttles Association title and its own Plymouth Salem forward Mike Hale all are first team repeaters.

Big 1980-87 All-Observer law a remarker to the newest dream team.

Rick Taylor of Salem, a transfer first time in the school's history was selected observerland coach of the Year.
Glenn, sporting its best record in the school's history (21-3), won its own district and tied Salem for first leave the point-guard Mark Robinson and tlyttles Association title and its own Plymouth Salem forward Mike Hale district.

Big 1980-87 All-Observer law a remarker with the instead by some first season. The complete season was selected observerland coach of the Year.

Glenn, sporting its best record in the school's history (21-3), won its own district and tied Salem for first season. The first time in the school's history was selected observerland coach of the Year.

Glenn, sporting its best record in the school's history (21-3), won its own district and tied Salem for first season. The first time in the school's history was selected observerland coach of the Year.

Glenn, sporting its district and tied Salem for first season was related observerland coach of the Year.

Glenn, sporting its district and tied Salem for first season was related observerland was related observ

Borgess took the Catholic League scoring list with 1,045 points and to write assists.

"Sleve played his best in the big comes," seld Glenn coach Gordin Davis.
"He was a fourth quarter pressure player.
"He was a fourth quarter pressure player.
Each to write the coach fleeter, one of the best player.
Hawley, the son of Wayne High altholic director Bill Hawley, its a two-line all-Western Lakes Conference pick.

FIRST TEAM

Western Lakes Conference pick.

Mark Robinson, senitor, Wayne: Robinson made a smooth transition from small forward to point-guard this season, averaging 20, points, 75 rebounds and Life Hawley, Robinson scored mate han 1,000 points during his three-year career, averaging 18 points per game as junior and 10 as a spohomore.
The two-time Wolverlin A co-HVP is described by his cook: Chuck Honny as
"just a beautiful kid."
"Just a beautiful kid."
"And he just hea a great attitude. He's the bost pure athiote that I have over conched."

Miko Hala, sentor, Plymeuth Sa-lom: Another three-year stator, Hala everaged 18 points. 37 robunds and seven assists por game, He shot 57 per-cent from the field and 75 percent from the free throw line. 1924 point and The two-time all-Wastern Lakos Confor-ted throw the second state of the second second second 324 robunds during the car-rice. "As a third-year starter, Mike is one of the best players to come out of Salem," where.

"He was also our most versatile player by helping to break the pressure, playing laside or outside, and guarding our oppo-nent's best player."

Andy Grazulis, sonior, Westland Glerin: Proving diligence can pay off, the 6-6 center was one of the most improved players in Observerland. The all-Western Lakes pick averaged ine ai-western Lakes pick averaged 17.2 points, shooting 59 percent from the floor, to go along with 12.3 rebounds per game. Grazulla is fourth on the II-lime Glenn scoring list with 765 points and is the third all-lime leading rebounder.

One reason for Bishop Borgess' success this season was the high-flying stuffs supplied by Cordell Robinson.

1966-07 ALL-OBSERVER BOYS BASKETBALL TEAM HONORABLE MENTION

When the Rocks tossed the ball into 6-foot-7 Rick Taylor, it usually resulted in points on

2nd-half surge sends Salem past Raiders

Plymouth Salem crupted for six second-half goals Friday to deci-mate North Farmington 7-0 in a Western Lakes Activities Associa-tion (WLAA) girls soccer match at tion (WLAA) girls SOCUET INSIGN.

The Rocks, now 2-0 for the season, outshot the Raiders (now 1-1) 25-8 in the game but managed just one first-half goal, by Jill Estey.
It was a different story in the second half. Michello Minton, a freshman striker, and Terri King each secored two goals. Lisa Bysko and Parm Mayer added single tailies as Salem turned what was a tight contest into a rout.

Salem turned what was a tight con-test into a rout.
Estey had two assists to go with her goal. Freshman fullback Jen-nifer Marshall also notched two as-sists, and King, Tracey Krajewski and Andre Overs each_contributed one.

On Wednesday, Salem opened its season with a surprisingly easy 5-2 win over visiting Northville. The Rocks had a 3-2 halftime lead, then "wore them down in the second half," according to coach Ken Johnhall," according to coach Nen John Son.

Minton scored two goals and applied significant pressure in the center of the field that opened up the outside for Estey, who collected a goal and two assists.

Jennifer Belhart played a strong game at midfield and contributed a goal. Hyske also scored for the Rocks, Marshall and sweeper Nikki Stojeba both performed well defensively in front of keeper Ellen Schnackel, who made 12 saves.

soccer

coach Ed Bartram was pleased with his team's performance Friday at Walled Lake Central. The shutout victory, he thought, would even his team's record at 1-1.

igible player.
That made Friday's win doubly goal in the second half. Trunk assisted projyable, particularly since Bartram has a bunch of seniors to rely with her third goal.
That has a bunch of seniors to rely with her third goal.
The project of the project of Minton scored two goals and applied significant pressure in the center of the field that opened up the field at goals and special of the field that opened up the field and contributed as goal. Hynde as stored for the field that opened up the field and contributed as goal. Hynde as stored for the field that opened up the field and contributed as goal. Hynde as stored for the field that opened the field and contributed as goal. Hynde as stored for the field that opened the field and contributed as goal. Hynde as stored for the field that opened the field and contributed as goal. Hynde as stored for the field and contributed as goal. Hynde as stored for the field and contributed as goal. Hynde as stored for the field and contributed as goal. Hynde as stored for the field and contributed as goal. Hynde as stored for the field and contributed as goal. Hynde as stored for the field as goal. Hynde as the field as goal as the field as goal. Hynde as the field as goal as the field as goal as the field as goal. Hynde as goal as the field as goal as the field as goal. Hynde as goal as the field as goal as the field as goal as the field as goal. Hynde as goal as the field as goal. Hynde as goal as the field as the victory. Farmington field and stopper Amy and the field and contributed as goal as the field that field the field as the victory. Farming on the field that field the field as the victory. Farming on the field that field the field that field the field that field tha

Staff photos