"I feel a man should look on wearing a hairpiece in the same way he does any piece of meant." he said. "He are not present to the same way he does any piece of meant." he said. "He are not give the said. "He are not give shim."

Squire Strang offers assorted stretch wigs that can be washed like human hair and restyled easily with a brush. They range from $49.50 that styles and 18 colors.

There also are moustaches, beards and sideburns available, at priees that begin at $10.55.

MEN INTERESTED in wigs, Marcot said, are not just those who are bald or have badly-thinning hair.

In previous ventures, he added, his customers have included servicemen who want to get away from regulation haircuts and buy longer wigs for use while on leave, young executives who like long hair executives who like long hair executives who like long hair with the conventional on the job, and mature men who want to look younger.
