Miss Michigan United

Scholarships are added to beauty pageant's list of prizes

HIS YEAR'S PRIZES are "the best ever" said Cynthia Guenther, executive director of Miss Michigan United Beauty Pageant. "We're going to be giving scholarships for the first time; 85,000 to be split between the winner and the first time; 10,000 to be split between the winner and the first time; 10,000 to be split between the winner and the first time; runners-up." Guenther said. "I was able to connect up with the Milton Shoong Foundation and that was important to me because so many of the contenders want to go on to school. "Our next winner will have use of

on to school.

The proof of the contenters want to go not school.

Our next winner will have use of the proof of the proof

Iot of new ones."

Darlene Plewa, Miss Michigan
United for 1985, will turn over her crown to the new title holder at the close of the pageant June 24 in Premier Center.

Plewa was spokeperson for, and Plewa was spokeperson for, and Plewa was spokeperson to and the spokeperson for the pretion of the pretio

THERE IS NO talent competition n the Miss Michigan United in the Miss Michigan United Pageant in the Miss Michigan United Pageant per the page of the Miss Michigan United Pageant per prospitation to begin careers in modeling and media work is what this pageant is all about. Many, many of them get their start through the page of the prizes that has consistently been given since the pageant's inception is an automatic audition to work in the auto shows for the 25 finalists.

"Last year I arranged for the top 25 auditions, but they needed more. I was able to get 35 of the top contend-ers some very good jobs for very de-cent wages. You don't have to be the winner in order to win. I have a long list of success stories," Guenther said winner in order to state is all state of success stories," Guentum said.

To qualify for the pageant a contestant must be 17 years of age before Dec. 31, 1987 and be no older than 29 on Dec. 31, 1987, She must never have been married and be a resident of Michigan, or officially registered at a Michigan school or university.

Contestants are judged on a performer charm, and the second second

Contestants are judged on a per-sonal interview, their figure, charm, poise, personality, intelligence and photogenic potential.

There are more prizes to be won through a drawing for the first 25 girls whose applications are received; a trip to Atlantic City; a portfolio of photographs to be used

ENTRY FORMS are available by calling Miss Michigan United Beauty Pageant headquarters, 851-7468. Deadline for entry is June 10, which allows time for all contestants to have their pictures in the pageant program have their pictures in the pageant is what Guenther calls "party week." All contestants will be invited to three or four parties in various parts of the metro area where they can meet one another and the judges informally. The parties are open to the contestant's parents, girlfriends and boyfriends.

boyfriends.

The first official preliminary judging will take place June 22 in Ginapolis, in Farmington Hills, followed by one of the pre-pageant parties

Darlene Plewa, Miss Michigan United of 1986, will turn over her crown to the new titleholder June 24.

Applicants sought to train for careers in home health care

Health Care Professionals Ltd., with the assistance of nearly 400 Destination of the control of the control of the care of the

"WE'VE HEARD from people who are very anxious to assist us," said Laforet. "Religious leaders have unique ties to their communities. We feel they will be able to help us target people in their parishes who have the interest and carling nature for a career with our agency."

Laforet said that HCP will consider every application it receives from people age 18 or older who have a telephone and reliable transportation. HCP accepts responsibility for prescreening, pretesting, interviewing, orienting, bonding and insuring new employees. Additional training is available at no cost for employees who wish to become certified home health aides.

Health Care Professionals was founded in 1975 by Laforet. The agency provides staffing and private duty services to health care facilities and home health care to patients in the southeastern Michigan community. The agency has headquarters at 17000 Eight Mile, Southfield 48074. The telephone number is 423-5500.

Rounded letters a sign of naivete

Dear Mrs. Green:
I'm finally sitting down to write this. I read your column all the time.
I love to look at the way other people write. I'm 29 years old, and married, with 3 boys.
I've always gotten compliments on my writing. I like the way it looks but I wish I could write smaller! I've notiteed my writing changes a lot. My loyear-old soon has the same style writing as I do.

B.C.,

B.C., Farmington Hills

Dear B.C.
A certain naivete and dependency is revealed in the exaggerated roundness of your letters. And while you are probably open "inded and receptive to the views of others, you may not always used discernmente. a good impression and to win approval and recognition. You also enjoy attention and admiration. And you seem overly concerned with self and your daily activities.
A tendency to make issues of trivial things also seems apparent. And you may have difficulty delaying pleasures.
Some contradiction, however, ex-

Some contradiction, however, exists because of your need for privacy and your controlled behavior.

FORMATIVE YEARS were spent in an environment where the female loca Jour Column ali time I doug to cook influence was strong. Very early you learned to control your emotions and feelings. Outwardly you present a picture of polse and cadm.

You rather enjoy having your own way. But you can also be flexible and yielding, preferring compromise to argument. And where home and family are concerned you can be protective of self and possessive of C. Green, a certified graphologist,

If you would like to have your handurting analyzed through this newspaper, write to Lorene C. Green, a certified graphologist, formulation agency.

at 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia, Mich. 48150. Please use a full sheet of white, untimed paper writing in the first person singu-lar. Age, handedness and signa-ture are all helpful. And feedback is always welcomed.

Haven calls volunteers

Haven, Oakland County's only do-mestic violence shelter, asks for vol-unteers who will be trained to aid in any of a number of areas where vol-unteers are needed.

The agency deals with the issues of adult and child sexual assault and domestic violence. It provides counseling, advocacy, a 24-hour crissiline, and temporary shelter to those needing the assistance.

Interested persons are asked to contact Kate Burkick, 334-1284.

Commute to UM-Dearborn and save thousands of dollars

A quality education doesn't have to be expensive

At nationally prominent private institutions. the cost of earning a four-year degree, including room and board, can exceed $12,000 a year.

At comparable public residential campuses in Michigan, the cost for one year of college averages $6,000.

The University of Michigan-Dearborn's total costs, including tuition, fees, transportation, and books, are $3,500 a year.

Students can commute to UM-D, take advantage of high academic standards, and still participate in the numerous cultural, intellectual, athletic, and recreational opportunities on campus, in the metropolitan area, and at U-M Ann Arbor.

Money saved by living at home can provide the resources to pay for these enriching opportunities. These savings can also make the next step to graduate or professional study a lot easier.

To learn more about UM-D, call for a prospectus and an appointment for a confidential admissions

The University of Michigan-Dearborn Office of Admissions Dearborn, Michigan 48128-1491 (313) 593-5100

The University of Michigan-Dearborn is an affirmative action non-discriminatory institution.

