

police/fire calls

Listed are some of the Farmington-area police and fire calls received during the past week:

LIQUOR INCIDENT

A waitress was ticketed and the management was issued a Michigan Liquor Control Commission violation when a 19-year-old Farmington Hills Police Department cadet was served a glass of red wine at J.R.'s Bar & Grill, 30859 10 Mile, March 27, police said.

The cadet, accompanied by a Special Patrol Operational Team officer, was sent to the bar after the LCC informed the police department it had received a written complaint about the bar's possible sale of alcoholic beverages to minors, Sgt. Al Haver said.

At no time was the cadet asked her age or to show identification, Haver said. The waitress was ticketed for serving an alcoholic beverage to a minor. The LCC will schedule a hearing on the alleged liquor law violation, Haver said.

FELONIOUS ASSAULT

A 27-year-old Oak Park man escaped injury when a ball bearing went through the driver's-side window of his car as he headed east on Grand River near Violet At 2:05 a.m. March 30.

The half-inch ball bearing was found on the passenger's seat. Damage was estimated at $150.
