12. The 1985-86 regular season was a bumpy ride, though. "Last year, the first 50 games I was playing great," he said. "Former Maple Leaf coach Dan Maloney was really happy with me."

"After Christmas and the holiday, January and February, I went through a bad slump. It was like my first game in the NHL. "I had no idea what I was doing. Guys were rolling off me in the corners and in the front of the net they were getting rebounds. I picked it up again in the playoffs."

Which is the most important time to pick it up.
