Shamrocks find success on diamond

It was quite a weekend for the Redford Catholic Central baseball team.
On Saturday, CC captured the Redford Union Invitational, defeating rival Bishop Borgers in the final, 9-1, at Capitol Park.
On Sunday, pitcher Doug Martin hurled his second no-hitter of the season, leading the Shamrocks to an 11-0 win over Borgers in the first game of a double-header at Capitol. But Borgers won the nightcap, 3-2.
CC, now 10-5 overall, reached the final of the RU Tournament with a 4-3 win over Redford Thurston, thanks to Greg Haeger's two-run single with the bases loaded in the top of the seventh.
Leo Hutchison, making his first start, pitched six strong innings, fanning six to gain the win.

Thurston had grabbed a 3-2 lead in the sixth on Bob Hourigan's homer. Hourigan earlier had tripped.
In the other semifinal, Borgers used the strong arm of Craig Karankiewicz to beat RU, 4-0. Karankiewicz, who tossed a three-hitter and struck out six, outdueled the Panthers' Darrell Guest.
Charlie North had two hits and an RBI, while Rick Gofourth and Ron Ritchie each added run-scoring sacrifice flies for Borgers.
IN THE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME, CC invoked the seven-run tournament mercy rule as Vince Morin keyed a four-run fourth inning, slamm-

Top-ranked Churchill, Salem battle to 2-2 tie

Plymouth Salem's soccer team only wanted a little respect. They wanted to be mentioned in the same sentence as Churchill, Troy and Troy Athens.

The fifth-ranked Rocks (7-1-2) gained some of that respect Monday night with a 2-2 tie on the road against top-ranked Livonia Churchill (9-1-2).

Salem sophomore Jill Estey knocked her 17th goal of the season, putting the Rocks ahead after 10 minutes of play, when she took a pass from Jeff Mysko and beat Churchill goalie Liz Monroe. The half ended with Salem leading 1-0.
But the game was far from over. Churchill's Kris Schultz opened the game at 1-1 early in the second half. Kim Montgomery was credited with the assist.

And, late in the game, it looked as if Churchill would rack up win No. 10 when Rosemary Hally fed Dawn Gabriel for the go-ahead goal with just seven minutes remaining on the clock.

Salem answered, however, on a goal from Tracy Krajewski with four minutes left in the game. Teri King got the assist.

"Shari Acitelli had an outstanding game for us on defense," said Churchill coach Nick O'Shea. "Dawn Gabriel usually plays on the left and we moved her to center and she responded well. Liz Montgomery and Dana Dugan also did well attacking from the outside."

Prior to the Salem game the Chargers hosted Farmington Harrison and crushed the Hawks 7-0.

Christy Clark led the offense with two goals of her own. Mass added three assists. The Chargers improved to 10-1-2 on Wednesday with a 2-1 win at Walled Lake Western.

After the Warriors took a 1-0 lead midway through the first half, Dugan evened the game with a goal off a pass from Hally. The half ended in a 1-1 deadlock.

Chris Paclero scored the winning goal midway through the second half. Gabriel was credited with the assist.

Monroe and Dana Keller split the goaltending duties.

CANTON 8, HARRISON 0: Behind a three-goal effort from Shannon Meath, Plymouth Canton picked up win No. 6 Tuesday with a win at Farmington Harrison.

Jodie Stueck led a pair of goals and Michelle Longiro, Sonya Malkhassian and Kim Blanche scored one goal each. Candi Jones finished with three assists, and Jenny Steinhebel had two.

With the win, the Chiefs improved to 6-2-2 overall.
Canton traveled to Livonia Franklin on Monday and nipped the Patriots 3-2.

After a scoreless first half, Jones opened the scoring off a pass from Michelle Fortier. Jenny Russell made it 2-0 off a pass from Tricia Greenhalge and Steinhebel scored the final goal on an assist from Meath.

FARMINGTON 5, NORTH 0: Leslie Martin booted in three goals, leading the Falcons to an impressive victory at North Farmington Monday night.

Carrise Maier and Margaret Martin added one goal each for the Falcons, who led 3-0 at the half.

Cindy Reidman recorded the shutout for Farmington (8-3-1) while Leanne Adie tended the net for North (4-9).

FOLEY 1, MERCY 0: A free kick from eight yards proved to be the winning goal as Madison Heights Bishop Foley edged perfect on the season Monday with its ninth straight triumph. Roxanne Kress scored the goal for the Ventures midway through the first half.

Farmington Hills Mercy had 17 shots on goal, compared to nine from Foley, but the Marlins couldn't penetrate the goal crease.

"We played a super game," said Mercy coach Gene Fogel. "We just couldn't put the ball in the net. That's been our problem all year. We have good goaltending and play good defense, but we can't score the goals."

Kelly Beaudry tended the net for Mercy. She has only allowed seven goals in nine games, but the Marlins are just 3-3-3 for her efforts.

Six players join Ocelots

With three of his top players gone, Schoolcraft College volleyball coach Tom Teeters knew he had some holes to fill. And he didn't waste any time filling them.

Teeters has signed six freshmen who should help keep SC in contention for the Eastern Conference championship, a title the Ocelots have held the last two
