

Knights Templar meet in conclave

Knights Templar Grand Commander Richard Webb Jr. will preside at the 131st annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery of Michigan, Thursday through Saturday, June 4-6. The Farmington Hills resident will headquarter the conclave in the Novi Hilton Hotel and has scheduled events throughout the weekend in Novi, Livonia and Farmington.

Donald Hineslea Smith of Keatucy, Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar, USA, will be in attendance.

Among state Masonic leaders expected to attend are Donald Heming,

Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Michigan; Carl Hobday, Grand High Priest of RAM; and Robert Wilson, Grand Master of the Grand Council.

Business sessions are scheduled for all day Friday and Saturday morning in the hotel.

Competitive drills and exhibition drills are scheduled to begin at 1 p.m. Saturday on Schoolcraft College Campus, on Haggerty Road, in Livonia.

A parade begins at 5:30 p.m. Saturday beginning at Grove Street and Farmington Road. The parade moves north to the Masonic Temple and then returns back down Farmington Road to Grove Street.

The parade will be led by Farmington High School's Marching Band and will include all Knights Templar commanders, many Shrine units and other Masonic bodies.

The group's Educational Foundation extends low cost loans to college students.

The group's Holy Land Pilgrimage Committee sends Christian ministers to the Holy Land to further enrich their ministerial experience and open new perspectives in learning and teaching in their respective faiths.

"Goodwills across the country were inundated last December with the most fabulous furs, furniture, antiques, heirlooms that we've ever known because of the new tax laws," Watson said.

"Detroit was no exception. It all came in too late for our show last year. Our Goodwill booth (during the fall show) will be bigger than ever this year."

'Healthy heart recipe'

AP — Two parts love, one part laughter, and the following "Healthy Heart Recipe" could be your key to greater well-being.

Cardiovascular surgeon Horace MacVaugh III, a member of the board of governors of the Philadelphia chapter of the American Heart Association, offers the following ingredients to keeping your heart pumping healthfully.

Besides not smoking and moderating alcohol consumption, this recipe could help a person avoid being one of every four Americans who develop heart disease, according to MacVaugh.

"The American Heart Association recommends this kind of dietary control to anyone," said Grahame P. Richards, chairman of the board of governors of the Southeastern Pennsylvania chapter of the American Heart Association.

"It helps us in our mission to end cardiovascular disease, which is the number one killer of adults in this country," Richards said. "This diet sounds like it's right on target."

MACVAUGH'S HEALTHY Heart Recipe is a high-fiber, low-fat and moderate-exercise recipe that calls for cutting down on fats, oils, butter and dairy products like ice cream and cheese. And remember, nuts are loaded with oil, too.
