Pamela Weathers Wed To Roger Dale Bates

Pamela Lynn Weathers and Roger Dale Bates were recently married in a double-ring ceremony in the Newburgh Methodist Church. The Rev. Paul L. Greer officiated the candlelight ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland C. Weathers, Jr., of Livonia, are the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bates, of Livonia.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a long gown of peau d'ange lace with a Sabrina neckline and long sleeves. Wide ruffles of lace around the skirt ended in a cathedral train. The bride chose a lustrous veil of silk illusion secured by a calligraphy and pearl headpiece. She carried a cascade of mums and camellia leaves.

The bride is employed by Bill Brown Ford and will also attend Schoolcraft College.

When the couple returns from their wedding trip to Kentucky, Tennessee, and North Carolina, they will live in Westland.

MRS. ROGER BATES (Pamela Weathers)

Deborah Kilgus, sister of the bridegroom, was the escort in a floor-length emerald gown. The bride wore a green crepe gown with a satin bow in the back. Her headpiece was of matching crepe and satin bows with a shoulder-length veil of mint green, and she carried a bouquet of yellow carnations with camellia leaves.

SHARON WEATHERS, Debra Rathbun, and Dee Krause were bridesmaids. All wore matching empire gowns of yellow crepe. They carried mint green carnations with camellia leaves. Kimberly Gay Chappell, the flower girl, wore a pink crepe, floor-length, empire-style gown with a satin band and bow in the back. She carried a colorful bouquet of pink and white carnations. Scott Coleman was the ring bearer.

Leland Weathers, the brother of the bride, served as best man. Gary Bates, Ross Gagneau, and Tony Cucinella were the ushers.

THE MOTHER of the bride chose a crepe gown of turquoise with a matching coat, and a corsage of matching carnations tipped in white. Mrs. Bates' crepe dress was in pink with a matching jacket and pink carnation corsage.

The bridegroom is attending Schoolcraft College, and is employed by the Ford Motor Co.
