

Police Study Narcotics Farmington Community Calender

Police Officer Glenn Fisher, a three-year veteran of the Farmington Dept. of Public Safety, has been named to attend a narcotics and drug abuse course at Oakland Community College Sept. 23-27.

The 40-hour course, co-sponsored by OCC and the Oakland County Prosecuting Attorney's office, will deal with the general problems of addiction to narcotics, search and seizure, and surveillance and information.

Instructors are from the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division of the Treasury Department, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the Federal Drug Administration as well as state and local agencies.

PTA Opens Season With Song

Longacre PTA will open the new season with a "Get Acquainted" program to be held at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, Sept. 25, in the multi-purpose room of the school. Entertainment will be provided by members of the Longacre teaching staff.

Mrs. Margaret Raastie, vocal music consultant, organized the talent for the evening and will sing a song selection. Lloyd Smith, instrumental teacher, will play the piano. Mrs. Mary Ann Grile, special education teacher, will play the guitar and sing a duet with Mrs. June Lieb, fourth grade teacher. Mrs. Kay Prior, instrumental teacher, will accompany the group on the violin.

Special guests for the evening will be members of the Farmington administrative school staff and school board trustees.

It takes only a little sense to avoid forest fires, but a lot of dollars to put them out.

4 Hurt In Auto Accident

One person was critically injured and four others hurt in a three-car accident at Seven Mile Road and Weyher in Livonia last week.

Still in critical condition at Botsford Hospital in Farmington is Mrs. Rita L. Alexander, 32, of 18626 Negaunee, Detroit. Her passenger, Jeanne Brown, 19, of 31675 Shawwasee, Farmington, is in satisfactory condition.

The others in the accident were treated and released.

Mrs. Alexander was preparing to make a left turn from Seven Mile onto Weyher when her car was struck in the rear by one driven by Garry R. Garrett, 20, of 24783 Five Mile Road, Detroit. He was ticketed by Livonia police for failing to stop within an assured clear distance.

The impact drove her car across the middle line into a head-on collision with a car driven by Charles R. Curtis, 18, of 21110 Van Buren, Southfield.

He and his passengers, Ronald Anderson, 18, of 22190 Seminoe, Southfield, and Dan Trowbridge, 17, of 21641 Seminoe, Southfield, also sustained injuries.
