Volunteers Work In Unusual Book Store

By MARGARET MILLER Church Editor

A most unusual book store that grew out of a most unusual fellowship has opened its doors at 30719 W. 10 Mile, Farmington.

homed a dozen years ago. So many women were interested that more meetings and Bible study groups sprang up, and the ministry known as "Winning Women" was underway.

"We now have a mailing list of 10,000," said Mrs. Wan, adding that the group sponsors Mrs. Reich in regular taped radio broadcasts as well as retreats that draw 2,500 women several times a year.

PART OF THE MINISTRY turned out to be distribution of inspirational books, and that was where the new venture found its start.

"We outgrew Jill's basement," explained Mrs. Van, "and for quite a while have been looking for a suitable place, convenient but a bit apart from the busy centers."

The former home on 10 Mile turned out to be such a spot. In recent weeks, volunteers have been hard at work painting, refurbishing and putting in shelves, lights and curtains.

"We wanted a homelike place where both men and women could stop in for a quiet moment," Mrs. Van said. "Everything here is donated by the people who also have given a great deal of time."

Jewish Book Fair Features Authors

Commissioner J. Clyde Cox, who heads up the Salvation Army's 11-state Central Territory, will be honored in Detroit Saturday, Nov. 7.

Film On Israel To Be Shown

"His Land," a color movie of the Holy Land, will be shown in the Evangelical Covenant Church, 24331 W. Eight Mile at Telegraph, Detroit, Sunday, Nov. 8.

"LATER WE MAY BE ABLE to expand to some of the old-fashioned fun-type books we used to enjoy so much," said Mrs. Reich, who was on hand to autograph books during the first week of operation.

Albert Vorspan, the controversial author of "So the Kids are Revolting..."

THE YIDDISH Theatre will present a repertoire of dramatic sketches, music and song. The two Sundays of the fair will feature special events for children and youth.

All Book Fair programs are open to the public and most are free. Brochures may be obtained by calling the Center's cultural arts department at DI-14200, ext. 291 or 292.

READY FOR FESTIVAL — Everything from imported clocks to handmade puppet oven mitts can be found at the fall festival to be sponsored by St. Raphael Catholic Church, Merriam north of Ford Road, Garden City from Nov. 13 to 15. Besides the many items for sale, there will be a haunted house and games for children and fish, spaghetti and chicken dinners. With a few of the wares are the Rev. Charles O'Neill (left), pastor of the church, and Jack Albright, festival chairman.

NOT GUILTY!

You don't have to live with sin and guilt. God has given you a spiritual identity that is innocent and free. You can prove this. And when you do, you will find your freedom from both sin and guilt.

Isn't this what you need and want? Join us this Sunday at a simple Christian service. There you will hear church members read a Bible Lesson which shows man's spiritual, sinless nature.
