recreation news

Each week, the Farmington Hills Department of Special Services Recreation Division presents a synopsis of upcoming activities. For more information about programs, please contact the recreation office at 474-6115.
For details about city council agenda items, please call the city newsletter at 476-3838.

● COMPASS READINGS — You can learn how to use a compass and other means of navigation to travel through the outdoors. Instructor, Tim Nowicki, will use the lay of the land of the 212-acre Heritage Park for practical instruction. Class will meet 6:30-8 p.m. Oct. 12, 14 and 19. Fee is $10 per person.

● FALL COLOR TOUR — The glories of autumn in its finest will be on view in a tour of the northeast section of Oakland County. The tour includes a guided walk through Meadowbrook Hall, lunch on your own at Bill Knapp's, a stop at a cider mill and a view of the brilliant colors of the countryside. The tour will leave Farmington Hills City Hall Saturday, Oct. 17, at 8:30 a.m. and return approximately 4 p.m. A $12 registration is required by Friday, Oct. 9. Space is limited.

● HUNTER'S SAFETY — A Hunter's Safety certificate can be obtained through this 12-hour state sanctioned class. The class will be held 6:30-9:30 p.m. at Heritage Park Oct. 6, 8, 13 and 15. Fee is $3 per person and is required by Friday, Oct. 2.

● MOTHER/SON DANCE — A corsage for mom, a boutonniere for son and a memorable picture of both are a part of this special evening 7-8:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 16, in the formal dining room at the Mercy Center. Music for dancing and listening pleasure and punch and cookies will also make up this special event. Registration will be accepted until Oct. 9 or until the maximum for the event is reached, as space is limited. The fee is $7 per couple and $3 for each additional son.

● CARIBBEAN CRUISE — Imagine seven fun-filled, warm, relaxing days in the sunny Caribbean as you visit the islands of St. Thomas, St. Martin and San Juan. You will travel on Carnival's "New Celebration" beginning Jan. 30, 1988. Fee is $1,200 per person plus port tax. You may obtain a reservation card at recreation office or contact Uniquest Travel at 553-5555. Only sixteen spaces are available. Initial deposits must be made by October 15.

● COMPLETES TRAINING
Army Private Willard Lund of Farmington Hills has completed one station unit training at the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga.
The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications and combat operations. Completion of this course qualifies the soldier as a light-weapon infantryman and as an indirect-fire crewman.
Lund is a Farmington Hills Harrison High School graduate.

● NEW MEMBER
Edward Sudzina of Farmington Hills has been accepted into the U.S. Military Academy's Corps of Cadets as a new member of the class of 1991.
Training in military customs and courtesies, drill and physical conditioning, tactical exercises and the firing of weapons introduced the basic cadets to military life with special emphasis on leadership, duty, honor and country.
The academy is a four-year educational institution graduating men and women to serve as career Army officers.

Adult ed class signup ending
