Art auction is under way

"For the Love of Art '87," a silent write-in auction and priced sale sponsored by the Birmingham Bloomfield Art Association (BBAA) will be conducted at its facility, 1516 S. Cranbrook (Evergreen at 14 Mile). Featuring donated works of art, art tools and supplies, the event will run through Oct. 17.

Bids will be accepted during the regular gallery hours of 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Final bidding, and the announcement of winning bids will occur at the reception and live auction 5-6 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 17. The live auction at 7 p.m. will be conducted under the auspices of auctioneer Frank Boos, who will be assisted by celebrity host Bob Allison.

Income generated from this event will be used to help match a $100,000 challenge grant from the Albert and Peggy deSalle Charitable Trust. Directed toward a major facility expansion, this fund-raising event will help the BBAA to continue to expand its programs and services in the visual arts to the community.

With the support of the Michigan Council for the Arts, the BBAA has adopted a policy of affirmative action, assuring equal and fair treatment to all, regardless of race, color, national origin, age, sex, or handicap.
