

Crime prevention is next subject for Table Topics

When the Table Topics Club kicked off the 1987-88 season organizers expected about 50 people. Almost double that number showed up for the luncheon program in Botsford General Hospital, and even more are expected for the October meeting.

Table Topics is a series of programs being offered by the hospital geared to the interests of senior citizens. The luncheon is $3 per person which includes a hot meal.

The next program slated for the Table Topics Club is Friday, Oct. 9, and will take place in the administration building at Botsford Hospital. The program is "How To Take a Bite Out of Crime." The focus of the program will tell seniors how to be "crime smart." Dwelling on the hazards of crime will be put to rest with positive information shared on personal safety, property and home protection.

Representatives from the Farmington Hills Police Department will be on hand to help participants eliminate unnecessary anxiety by learning some basic safety tips.

Botsford Hospital is interested in the welfare of senior citizens and offers the programs not only as an opportunity for interaction but as a community service. With this in mind, Botsford Hospital includes transportation to and from the programs for those who are not able to get there on their own. The transportation cost is $1.

Reservations are requested for the Table Topics programs which begin at noon with refreshments; luncheon at 12:30 p.m., and the program of the day at 1:30 p.m.

All programs are open to the public and reservations can be made by calling the hospital, 473-9570. Botsford Hospital is at 28050 Grand River.

Prenatal and postpartum class offered

Prenatal and postpartum exercise classes take place every Saturday morning in Providence Hospital's Novi Center. The classes have been running for more than a year with participants offered entry at any time.

Registration information is given by calling Debra Hoppe, 478-1047.

Dear Lorene:

I would like to take this opportunity to tell you how very much I enjoy your column. I am very interested in Graphology.

I am 34 years old, divorced with two children, and I currently manage a company with approximately 50 employees.

I do appreciate your analyzing my handwriting.

S.A.,
Redford

Dear S.A.:

Your large, rigid handwriting with its flourished "V" bars and right slant brings to mind the picture of a young woman who was originally an introvert with rigid, predictable behavior. But in the process of maturing is becoming more extroverted and fun loving.

Jewish Vocational Service (JVS), a non-sectarian agency, offers an ongoing Displaced Homemaker Program funded by the Michigan Department of Labor, Office of Women and Work, for individuals in Wayne and Oakland Counties.

Displaced homemakers are women who, through divorce, separation, widowhood, or disability of spouse, have lost their source of economic support. After spending a substantial number of years in the home caring for family members, displaced homemakers find returning to the job market a difficult transition.

I would like to take the opportunity to tell you how I am very interested in graphology.

While you can be outwardly happy and flirtatious, you also must fight feelings of depression at times.

Your current lifestyle keeps you busy in the fast lane. Some of your lines of handwriting are intermingled with the lines below telling me you are so involved that you may be finding it difficult to keep all aspects yourself from it. You are ambitious for recognition and would like to make a place for yourself in the environment. Center stage is becoming more appealing than back stage. Still inner turmoil and ambivalence continue between needing the attention, yet also needing to always do the "correct" thing.

Security is ever important in your priorities. And you are not prepared to take major risks that might place it in jeopardy.

You are a dependable, conscientious and good worker who sees the task through to completion. When you feel it necessary you can be aggressive to reach the desired result.

Yours is the gift of words. I can see your ability to get others to do what you would like them to do. This is an extremely valuable trait for someone in a supervisory position.

THE PAST still has a great deal of influence on you. Some old hurts are causing you to be on guard with other people. You might want to take a constructive look at this resentment in an effort to extricate

Displaced Homemakers program continues

Program provides vocational assessment, vocational counseling, job seeking skills and job placement assistance. Women who need to become financially self-sufficient, who need a boost towards entering the job market after many years in the home, are invited to contact JVS.

Eligibility is based on marital and employment status. There are no income guidelines. Interested applicants are encouraged to call Sherri Lumborg or Louise George at 559-5000 during business hours.

Enrollment for the program will take place at the JVS Southfield facility on Mondays, Oct. 26, Nov. 16 and Dec. 14.
