Because you care...

In a time of crisis,
the family instinctively turns to the church and to friends, and to those institutions that most nearly reflect their own feelings.

The family that pauses
to mark the passing of one of their own is demonstrating
one of our culture's noblest traditions.

we care.

It is called "Caring" — the reflection of a sincere desire to honor the memory of a loved one, and to offer help to those who live on.
In this manner family and friends show that they care for one another.

And, in like manner, we recognize that losing a loved one can suddenly compel you to handle many unfamiliar details under considerable stress.
So, wherever possible, we suggest that you consult with us in advance of need.
We can make the way easier because for nearly 100 years we have been involved in the tender art of caring.
