3 council candidates state their views

Name: Raiph D. Yoder. Address: Lamar Drive., Age: 61.

Name: Ralph D. Yoder.
Address: Lamar Drive.
Age: 61.
Length of residency: 35 years.
Employer: president, Tri-County
Enterprises Inc., Farmlagon Hills
(trucking company).
Family: wite, Margaret: son, Joel,
33; daughter, Julia, 30.
Education: Farmington High
School graduste, 1947.
Governmen Involvement: member, Farmington City Council, 22 years; mayor, 1973-76 and 1933-85; member, Farmington Planning Commission, four years; member, Farmington Joning Board of Appeals, Itve years; member, Farmington Retirement Board, 17 years.
Community Involvement: member, Farmington Beautification Commission, four years; member, Farmington Beautification Committee, two years; member, Farmington Community Band Board of Directors, two years, and member, Farmington Community Center Board of Directors, two years, and member, Farmington Community Center Board of

1. Why are you running for re-election?

"I seek re-election to the Farmington City Council because of my continuing interest in the community and the improvements that can be made in keeping our city the attractive, and the well-governed city it has been for many years."

2. What do you consider the most important issues for the city of Farmington in the next four years? "A. Solid Waste Disposal. A consortium representing the communities of Farmington, Farmington Hills, Southfield, Novi, South Lyon and Wailed Lake has been formed to deal with the problem of solid waste disposal that has plagued our communities for many years. A consulting firm has been hired to eventually determine the ultimate means of disposals.

posal.

B. The widening of Orchard Lake
Road and the financing involved.
C. Continued development of downtown.
D. Code inforcement as regards to the maintenance of quality housing and commercial establishments."

3. What special qualities do you bring to the council?

Raigh D. Yoder

"Twenty-four years of govern-mental involvement."

4. Are there items in the local budget you would change? What areas should be increased, or cut? "More monies should be budgeted for the continuous maintenance and improvements of our streets and roads, many of which are 30 years and older."

What is your feeling about federal shared revenue used at the local level? How does Farmington fare in its reliance on federal and state money, compared with other communities?

money, compared with other com-munities?
"The city of Farmington is not re-liant on Federal Revenue Sharing, however, we are reliant on state shared revenue. State law provides that taxes shall be collected by the state for distribu-tion to the cities. Included are sales ax, income tax and gas and weight tax. Since these taxes are based on formulas, some cities fare better than others."

6. Farmington and other south-west Onkland County communities face a solid waste disposal dilemma. What do you feel would be the best plan for disposing of Farmington's solid waste? "It would seem to me that a com-

"It would seem to me that a com-bination of source-separation incin-

Name: William S. Hartsock.
Address: Cass.
Age: 37.
Length of residency: 23 years.
Employer Roncy & Co., Farmington Hills, account executive. Also a certified public accountant, and former self-employed businessman.
Family: son Christophers.
Education: Our Jarmington, 1988.
bachelor's degrees in political science and accounting and finance.
Eastern Michigan University. 1972 and Covernment involvement: was elected to first two-year term on council in 1973, then subsequently re-elected to four-year terms; served as mayor from 1979-81 and a current 1985-87 term; has served on all major city boards and commissions.
Community involvement: current member, Farmington VMCA board of directors; member, Farmington Exchange Club.

. Why are you running for re-

1. Why are you running for re-ciection?

"I firmly believe each of us should have a commitment to ourselves to serve our community, and I chose to serve on the city council, and various boards and commissions. There aren't any particular issues that have driven me to run for council— it's just a commitment to contribute to the community."

2. What do you consider the most important issues for the city of Farmington in the next four years? "The most major concern is sold waste treatment. Another issue distended to the downtown area, which is being addressed through the downtown Development authority. I think we've come a long way... in implementing plans.

come a long way. . . . in Implementing plans.
"In the area of recreation, we've done a lot of work in both of our city parks over the last two years. In a lot of the areas, the Issues have been addressed, it's just the ongoing refining and maintenance of it. "Senior citizens need to be addressed. It would be negligent on part if we don't continue to address their problems and concerns."

3. What special qualities do you bring to the council? "My training, background and experience as a CPA and the financial perspective it brings as well as having owned my own business. Our current council has a good cross-section of talent as well as representation from the city."

Please turn to Page 4

William S. Hartsock

4. Are there items in the local budget you would change? What areas should be lacreased, or eu?? "Since I'm an incumbent, the budget is the final project of our work so there wouldn't be anything I'd change. We spent a good six weeks going over the budget."

5. What is your feeling about federal shared revenue used at the local level? How does Farmington fare in its reliance on federal and state money, compared with other communities?

munities?
"The federal shared revenue program was terminated: we still have about $25,000 that is a carryover. Compared to the size of our budget, this is miniscule and it always has been.
"Federal revenue sharing has nevitated and the still still term in our stafficient item in our er been a significant item in our budget. It's something you can't get comfortable with because its some-thing out of your control."

Farmington and other south-west Oakland County communities face a solld waste disposal dilemma. What do you feel would be the best

Name: Richard L. Tupper.
Address: Cass Avenue.
Age: 34.
Length of residency: 51 years.
Employer: self-camployed. Tupper Associates, Inc., Farmington Hills.
Family: wife, Donnahos, Brian,
30, David, 24. day Farmington Hills.
Education: 1950 Farmington High School graduate. Michigan State University untertificate. 1952 (two yeast) member merchandising and faverament involvement: member, Farmington Planning Commission. 6 years; member, Farmington Board of Appeals, 2 years; member, Farmington Arca Goodfellows, 18 years; member. Farmington Arca
Jayces, 10 years; member, Farmington Arca
Jayces, 10 years; member, Farmington Exchange Club, 18 years (past)

1. Why are you running for re-election?

"I have a genuine interest in our community and a concern for its future."

2. What do you consider the most important issues for the city of Farmington in the next four years?
"Protect our tax base, improve city roads, deal with our traffic problem, be firm in the enforcement of our ordinances and cautious in granting variances."

3. What special qualities do you bring to the council?
"Thirteen years of past city council experience with two years as mayor, several years on the planning commission and two years on the room of the part of the grant of the years with the construction industry has given me experience I can apply to long- and short-term community planning."

4. Are there items in the local budget you would change? What areas should be increased, or cut? "We operate on a tight budget con-cept, with tax rate increase or de-crease as appropriate. Our 1887 budget review again showed objective planning toward the needs of our fiscal programs."

Richard L. Tuppe

5. What is your feeling about federal shared revenue used at the local level? How does Fermington fare in its reliance on federal and state money, compared with other communities?

"Revenue sharing is unpredictable and we must be very conservative when estimating the amount we will receive."

6. Farmington and other south-west Oakland Cousty communities face a solid waste disposal dilemma. What do you feel would be the best plan for disposing of Farmington's solid waste?

"Presently. Farmington and six other communities are involved in a Southwest Oakland County Waste Consortium The future of old waste disposal with the amojor and expensive. decision. Recently, the consortium soliceted in the constitution firm to determine the most cost of-fective plan to adop. Final decision will require carried consideration by the city council."

7. Give us your perception of downtown redevelopment for Farmington. Paint a picture of your vision for downtown 10 years from today.

"The construction that will soon take place will greatly improve the

Please turn to Page 4

Election Day: Tuesday, Nov. 3

Three veteran councilmen are running unopposed for three vacanion-parisan seats on the Farmington City Council this November. Current Mayor William Hartsock, and councilmen Richard Tupper and Ralph Yoder have each pledged to run for another term for a variety of reasons.

All said they wanted to represent esidents and help the city move

All said they wantee to repite residents and help the city move toward the future. The two Vote-getters will receive four-year terms on the council and the owner terms on the council and the owner terms. The council to the council and the owner & Eccentrie sent the council to get their opinions about various issues facing the city of Farmington. Our questions and their answers appear above.

election '87

Issues facing the city include the rejuvenation of the city's central business district, the future dilemma of solid waste disposal and the task of rebuilding streets as the city ages.

All residents who were registered to vote as of Oct. 5 may cast a ballot in the Nov. 3 general election. If you are not registered, you cannot vote.

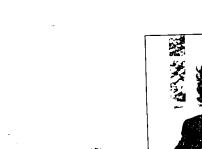

About 17 percent of the city's 8,000 registered voters cast ballots in the last council election, which oc-curred in 1985, according to city clerk Josephine Bushey.

Those who are unable to vote on Nov. 3 because of age or health restrictions, or if you will be out of the area on that day, may vote by absence ballots. Those requiring absentee ballots can either pick them up at the city clerk's office at Farmington City Hall, 23600 Liberty, or call 474-5500 and request an application. The clerk's office will be open Saturday, Oct. 31, to distribute and receive absentee ballots between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m... Completed absence ballots must be received no later than 5 p.m. Monday, Nov. 2, according to appokeswoman from the clerk's office.

Council members receive $300 per ice.

Council members receive $900 per year for their part-time service to the city. The mayor is elected by fellow council members for a two-year term.
The city council meets at 8 p.m. on the first and third Mondays of each month at city hall on Liberty Street.

A PERSONAL APPEARANCE

Meet Ms. Jan Newman, owner of the Ann Arbor based toy company. Aristoplay. And watch as she demonstrates her collection of award-winning, educational games.

Thursday, October 15 From 3 to 5 p.m. Toy Shop, Livonia

Jacobson's

Shop until 9 p.m. on Thursday and Friday Until 6 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday business briefs

If you recently opened a shop, captured an award, earned a promotion, are planning a new venture or project, or have information about other business-related happenings — and there's a Farmington-area connection — we'd like to hear from you so we can share your news item with other Observer readers. Send items to: Business briefs, Farmington Observer, 3203 Grand River, Farmington 48024.

COMERICA PROMOTONS
 Comerica Bank-Detroit has promoted two Farmington Hills residents.
 Patricia Fancy was named vice president in Comerica's corporate legal departing for the Comerica's corporate legal departing for the Comerica, she was an attorney for General Motors Corp.
 She is a member of the American and Michigan bar associations.
 Bruce Yeager Jr. was named a private banking officer within the private banking department at Comerica.
 Yeager Joined Comerica in 1985 as erica.

Yeager joined Comerica in 1985 as a corporate loan analyst and was promoted to private banking repre-sentative in 1985.

STUDIO MANAGER
 Farmington High School graduate
Marcia Rapnicki was appointed Hamtramck studio manager for Om-

Hamtramek studio manager for Um-licom Cablevision.
She has been with Omnicom in Canton Township since May.
Rapplicki was previously a coordi-nator at the Oxford Conference Cen-ter at the University of Michigan, in charge of executive transportation, accounts payable, scheduling and payeroll

CHAIRMAN ELECTED
 The Michigan Mason Contractors
 Association of Farmington Hills HAS Constitute of Farmington Hills HAS Costella, vice president of Monte
 Costella, vice president of Monte Costella Co. Southfield, for the third consecutive year.
 Edson Lawrence, president of Lawrence Masonry Corp. of East Lansing, was re-cleeted vice chairman at the association's annual meeting in Harbor Springs.

BOTSFORD TOUR

As a result of the recent success of Metropolitan Detroit Convention and Visitors Bureau familiarization trip, the Botsford fin of Farmington Hills will be listed as a tour stop again in 1988.

Six tour companies, which conducted motorcoach tours through the Dearborn Inn, Meadow Brook Hail, Henry Ford Estate and Greenfield Village, have booked tours again in the Detroit area.

The Metropolitan Detroit Convention and Visitors Bureau is a non-profit organization THAT promotes the Detroit area as a site for meet-ings, conventions and group tours. The net worth of the six tour com-panies' bookings alone could equal over $70,000 in 1988, according to figures released by the bureau.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED
J. Martin Temporaries/Flus Inc. of Farmington Hills announced the award of a $500 scholarship to Joseph McCorkle of Detroit.
The company, which handles temporary employment for companies, awarded McCorkle the scholarship based upon the number of hours worked and both his attendance work performance.

• MOONLIGHT MADNESS

The Downtown Farmington Business Association has scheduled Moonlight Madness from 7-10 p.m. Friday, Oct. 23. Merchants in the downtown area will participate. The event will include searchlights, Friday, vet. as a will participate. The event will include searchlights, pumpkins and cider.

Also scheduled is Christmas walk Sunday, Nov. 22. The walk will give Farmington hoppers a chance to see that of the property of the control of the contr take place.

In addition, the Farmington Jaycees will light the gazebo at the Warner Mansion on Grand River at 7