

Chapp lifts Mercy to win over Regina

Patty Chapp has been the unsung hero of Farmington Hills Mercy's girls basketball this season. While teammates Jan Herberholz, Adrienne Clark and Jennifer Slosar have taken turns receiving accolades, Chapp has been one of the quietest performers, doing many of the important things on the court that sometimes go unnoticed.

But it was her turn to stand in the spotlight Thursday as the Marlins stomped Harper Woods Regina 63-37 on the loser's floor.

Chapp, a senior forward, scored a game-high 17 points and continued her outstanding free-throw shooting to help Mercy boost its record in the Catholic League's Central Division to 7-3.

Chapp made all but one of her 10 free-throw attempts to pace Mercy's 19-of-25 shooting at the line. She has connected on 26 of 28 free throws in the last three games.

The Marlins led 29-20 at halftime and dominated the Saddledikes 34-17 in the second half.

Slosar, a 6-foot-1 center, was in foul trouble and sat out much of the first half, but her teammates picked up the slack on the boards. While Mercy shot 54 percent from the field, Regina didn't have any offensive rebounds in the first half. The Marlins outrebounded the Saddledikes 32-21.

Mercy coach Larry Baker was pleased by his team's performance, saying "I felt our level of play slipped the previous weeks, but we upgraded our game. We had balanced scoring, our passing was good and we ran well."

"If we keep that up, we could cause some trouble in the league playoffs," he added.

Clark added 13 points and Her-girls basketball

berholz 12 for the Marlins. Polly Williams, a junior center, scored 16 points and Chris Comito 15 for Regina, 4-6 in the division and 6-10 overall.

NORTHVILLE 69, HARRISON 25: Karen Baird scored 12 points to pace the Mustangs, who led 37-8 at halftime. Northville finished 6-4 in the Western Division and is 10-7 overall.

Darcy Tindal's 11 points was tops for the Hawks, 9-10 and 9-16. Coach Jim Neve had to bring two players up from the jayvee squad to have a full lineup. Four players were out with illnesses, and one was attending to family business.

On Tuesday, Harrison nearly pulled off a victory, but fell two points shy in a 27-25 loss to division opponent Livonia Churchill, which rallied in the second half.

The Hawks outscored the Chargers 8-6 in the first quarter and entered the locker room at halftime with a 17-16 lead.

But Churchill gained a 8-5 advantage in the third period to steal the victory since both teams played even in the fourth, scoring three points apiece.

Pinal scored a game-high 15 points, and Carrie Blanchard paced the Chargers, who improved to 2-8 and 2-15, with 12.

SALEM 69, STEVENSON 28: Following Parents Night and Senior Night ceremonies prior to the game, it took the Rocks one quarter of play before they hit their stride.

The Lakes Division champions held the lead, but it was a four-point margin over the fifth-place Spartans, 14-10. Salem was well on its way by halftime, however, outscoring Stevenson 23-6 in the second quarter for a 21-point lead at the intermission.

The Rocks coasted home with a 32-12 second half as senior Dena

Head had another big game. The All-State player scored a game-high 26 points, grabbed eight rebounds, passed for seven assists and made five steals.

Salem's Keri McBride added 14 points, and Jill Estey had nine points, four assists and six steals. Center Barb Brug pitched in with eight points and an impressive 17 rebounds.

Sue Zatorski's eight points was tops for Stevenson, 2-8 in the division and 5-11 overall.

The Rocks concluded division play with a 10-0 mark and upped their season record to 16-1 with their 15th consecutive win. Salem plays at Livonia Franklin, the fourth-place team in the Western Division, in the first round of the Western Lakes playoffs Tuesday night.

CANTON 50, CHURCHILL 10: The Chiefs also finished with a perfect, 10-0 record as champions of the Western Division for the third straight year.

Canton rolled over the Chargers, who managed only three points in the first three quarters. The Chiefs led 19-3 at halftime and outscored Churchill 14-0 in the third period.

The Chiefs, 13-4 overall after extending their winning streak to 12 games, were led by Susan Ferko with 13 points and Heather Miller with nine. Churchill ends with a 2-8 division record and is 2-14 overall.

In the first round of the WLLA playoffs Tuesday, Canton will be host to North Farmington, the fourth-place team in the Lakes Division.

Westland John Glenn is at Walled Lake Western, and Walled Lake Central visits Northville in other first-round action.

The WLLA has planned a pair of sextuple-headers for the next two Saturdays in the Salem gymnasium. The games begin at 10 a.m. with another scheduled to start every two hours.

In the semifinals, the Central-Northville winner meets the North-Canton survivor at 6 p.m., and the Salem-Franklin winner plays the Western-Glen winner at 8 p.m.

Ocelots trounce Ford

Tina Osantowski turned in her best day attacking since joining the Schoolcraft College volleyball team last year to lead the Lady Ocelots to an easy 15-5, 15-12, 15-4 triumph at Henry Ford CC Thursday.

Osantowski connected on 11 kills in 18 attacks with one error (555 attack average). Maria Evans added nine kills in 19 attacks and Chris Paolero had seven in 24 attempts. Wendy Spencer contributed three service aces.

SC is now 31-7 overall and 8-0 in the Eastern Conference.

THE LADY OCELOTS improved their soccer record to 11-2-2 Wednesday with a 1-0 blanking of University of Michigan.

Jennifer Flowers got the game's only goal, 10 minutes into the second half. Jennifer Hugh assisted.

Star of Sea's shine tarnished by Mercy

Farmington Hills Mercy trounced another Catholic League foe in girls swimming Thursday and ran its dual-meet record to 7-0-1.

The Marlins had five swimmers with two first places apiece in a 126-26 thumping of Grosse Pointe Star of the Sea in the East Detroit High School pool.

Cindy Grush, Lynne Zieleniski, Roberta Orr and Becky Wiquist won one individual event and were on successful relay teams, and Mary Quinn was part of both relay foursomes.

Grush won the 200-yard freestyle in 2:06.28, Zieleniski the butterfly in 1:08.6, Wiquist the 500 freestyle in 5:28.22 and Orr the breaststroke in 1:14.41.

In relay competition, Orr, Zieleniski, Liz DeMattia and Quinn won the medley event in 2:05.43, and the freestyle relay team was comprised of Karen Neyer, Grush, Quinn and Wiquist and had a 4:02.03 time.

Mercy won all 10 events and there was no diving competition — as Polly Tenuta finished first in the individual medley (2:27.3), Jennie Olmstead the 50 freestyle (28.48), Nicole Belli the 100 freestyle (1:08.26) and Maureen Lee the backstroke (1:10.52).

The Marlins have two league dual meets remaining against Harper Woods Regina on Wednesday, Nov. 4, and Birmingham Marian on Thursday, Nov. 12. Mercy is a heavy favorite to win its 24th consecutive league title on Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 21 and 22.

"Winning the Catholic League is exciting, but if it was going to be close it would be different," Mercy coach Paul Schroeder said. "Our big meet is going to be the state meet in East Lansing."

"We've got about half the team qualified for the state meet. The girls are really swimming well, better than they were a year ago."

CHURCHILL 98, HARRISON 64: Churchill added another victory to its perfect record during a successful girls swimming season Thursday.

The Chargers improved to 4-0 in the Western Division and 9-0 overall in dual meets by defeating Farmington Harrison 98-64 in the latter's pool.

Angie Neville, Audra Martin and Katie Hamann paced the winners with one individual victory apiece and a role in Churchill's 200-yard medley relay victory.

Hamann won the individual medley in 2:41.1, Martin the 100 freestyle in 55.8 and Neville the 500 freestyle in 5:46.6.

Neville, Martin, Hamann and Cathy Ankenbrandt

captured the medley relay in 2:05.8. Stacy Tomaszewski also gave the Chargers first place in the backstroke with a 1:15.5 time, and teammate Kris Bowson won the diving with 126.9 points.

The Hawks, 2-2 in the division and 4-6 overall, set a school record and qualified for the Class B meet in two events.

Liz Tucker broke her own record in the backstroke with a 1:12.3 finish, and she anchored Harrison's state-qualifying victory in the freestyle relay. Julie Farabee, Jill Murany, Jenni Fitzgerald and Tucker were under the Class B standard with a 4:00.0 performance.

Murany also will compete in state competition after finishing second to Hamann in the individual medley at 2:26.7.

Tucker had three victories as she won the 200 freestyle (2:08.3), too. Fitzgerald and Farabee also had individual firsts, Fitzgerald winning the 50 freestyle (28.1) and Farabee the butterfly (1:08.5).

CANTON 126, FRANKLIN 37: The Chiefs had no trouble getting past the Patriots, winning all 11 events to remain on a collision course with Churchill.

Canton, also 4-0 in the Western Division, will meet the Chargers in the final division dual meet Thursday, Nov. 12, in the Canton pool.

Danielle Dickinson won the 100 freestyle in 1:02.9 and also participated in both relay victories.

Jean McLanaghan, Melinda Wilkrot, Chris Lang and Dickinson won the medley relay in 2:08.1, and Kelly Rische, Dickinson, Nicole Drake and Kristy Brugar prevailed in the freestyle contest with a 4:05.3 time.

Among the relay members, McLanaghan also was first in the individual medley (2:29.3), Brugar the backstroke (1:11.2) and Drake the butterfly (1:05.9).

Canton's Renee DeBell won the 200 freestyle in 2:20.8, Lori Engelhuber took the 50 freestyle in 27.4, Danielle Walker captured the 500 freestyle in 5:59.9, and Cassie Cummins had the top time of 1:20.1 in the backstroke.

There was no diving competition since the Franklin diving board was broken.

Coach wins 100th game

Oakland University made quick work of Siena Heights Wednesday — it just took the Pioneers a while to do it.

Wait. Hold it. Let's try that again.

OU's soccer team did dispose of the Saints by a 3-0 margin, and in the process earned coach Gary Parsons his 100th career victory. And the Pioneers did it by scoring three times in a span of 18:30 — two of those coming within 31 seconds of each other.

It's just that it took them nearly 42 minutes to reach that scoring streak.

Tom Duff, the senior from Birmingham School, got OU rolling with just 3:33 left in the opening half. Duff scored after Yong Song got him the ball in the Siena Heights' penalty area. Duff worked a give-and-go with Earl Parris, who took his pass then got the ball back to him for the goal.

FOURTEEN MINUTES into the second half, the Pioneers made it 2-0 by going airborne. Alvin Stewart's corner kick went to Scott Steiner (from Plymouth Salem and Schoolcraft College) at the near post; Steiner headed the ball to Paul Phillips at the far post, and Phillips headed the ball into the net.

A Siena Heights misplay gave OU its third goal. Mikael Carlstrom got the ball to Duff on the right sideline, and Duff passed to Parris on the left wing. Parris beat his defender and attempted a pass back to Duff, but the ball was deflected into the net by a Saint defender. Parris was awarded the goal, with Duff and Carlstrom assisting.

The victory kept OU's chances for an NCAA Division II playoff berth alive, raising its record to 10-4-1. Parsons is now 100-27-12 in his seven seasons at OU.

Nino DiCosmo (from Troy Athens) was in the OU net for the shutout. His third in four starts this season. But he was hardly tested; the Pioneers outshot Siena Heights 23-5. DiCosmo made two saves; he has had to make just seven in his four victories.

The defeat was the first of the season for Siena Heights (10-1-3), which was ranked 16th in the NAIA entering the match. OU is 17th in the NCAA Division II. The Pioneers host Central Michigan Wednesday, then play at Eastern Michigan Saturday in their regular-season finale. Tournament bids will be announced Sunday.

OU NOTES: A season that started so promisingly continued to slide Tuesday when the Lady Pioneers were swept at Grand Valley State 15-9, 15-11, 15-7 in a Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference volleyball match. The loss dropped OU to 20-10 overall and 4-4 in the GLIAC after a 14-2 start.

The Lady Pioneers' key attackers were stifled at Grand Valley. Tracey Jones had just seven kills in 19 attacks with four errors, a .158 attack average, but did contribute seven block assists. Sue Lormin had only five kills in 20 attacks with three errors (.100) and Holly Hatcher had seven kills in 18 attacks with three errors (.222).

Freshman Cindy Walsh had the best day attacking, with five kills in 19 attempts without an error (.263). OU plays at Wayne State Tuesday, then goes north to play at Northern Michigan Friday and Michigan Tech Saturday.
