Forest setting for Halloween night party

It was 15 years ago that Heritage Hills residents held their first Halloween party to reduce the danger of trick or treating for area youngsters. The annual event was so successful that Forest Elementary, 34545 Old Timber, began to be the setting for a party for five neighborhoods in a square mile area, between 13 and 14 Mile and Farmington and Drake roads.

The 1987 Halloween Party was held Saturday night at the elementary school. It was paid for by the five homeowner associations and run by the Forest Elementary Parent/Teacher Organization and Halloween committee members.

Suzie Leach and Gail Kuhar have organized the party for the past two years.

At this year's party, children enjoyed cider and doughnuts and 15 different games, included face painting and arts and crafts. Door prizes were donated by area businesses and residents.

The group received donations from: ACO Hardware, Buggy Works Restaurant, Marion Graus of Bulk Food Warehouse, Burger King, Children's Palace, Claramitaro Brothers, Clara High Harwell, Betsy Stanis of Discovery Toys, Domino's Pizza, Dunkin' Donuts, Fantastic Sam's, Feldbro Meats, Gaynor's, Harmony House, Kathy Kerekes, James Myers of the Swang Choi Institute, Laura Westberg, Linda Austin, Marmel, Plerry's, the Ashmann family, the Leach family, Videocass and WLLZ-FM radio.
