

Revelers gather for holiday past

Oakway Symphony will present a holiday evening of feasting and song in the manner of merry olde England at 7 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 12, in the Residence Dining Hall at Madonna College, Livonia.

Entertainment includes the Silver Swan Singers of East Lansing. The singing group, taking their name from Orlando Gibbon's madrigal, "The Silver Swan," have delighted audiences with their music and revelry at many celebrations, including the Michigan Renaissance Festival.

Chef Ernie Wheaton's menu boasts hot cider or hot rum punch, platters of cheese and French bread, whole cornish hens with apple dressing and walnuts, and plum pudding.

Other entertainment includes the Oakway Brass Ensemble, medieval instrumentalists, dancing, the presentation of the pheasant, wassail toasts and Christmas caroling. Dress in costume if you wish.

Tickets are $27.50 per reveler, with tables of six or 10 reserved at a discount. For information or reservations, call Madonna College, 591-5046. Madonna College is at I-96 and Levan Road in Livonia.

'Solid Gold Cadillac'

Bob Salisbury, Bob Uridge, Paul Rankin and Holden Drury make up the corporate board in "The Solid Gold Cadillac" for the next two weekends in North Congregational Church, Southfield. Dinner is served before the production at 6:30 p.m. Fridays, 8 p.m. Saturdays and 5 p.m. Sundays. Members of Poverty Players come from throughout the metro area. Uridge is a resident of Farmington Hills. Dinner theater tickets are $10, available by calling the church office during business hours, 356-1560.

Tag Days amass $9,000

Tag Days, the annual weekend solicitation that raises money to support the musicians in all three public high schools, raised more than $9,000 this fall.

The top solicitors from North Farmington High were Steve Randol, Mark Barston and Michelle Ober.

The top solicitors from Farmington High were Matt Poertner, Heather Stewart and Tim Griffith. Top solicitors from Harrison were Michelle Lee, Steve Weirreich and Joe Cisto.
