

Vocal competition for scholarships is now under way

The Madrigal Choral and Macebees Mutual Life Insurance Co. announce the fourth annual "MCS Vocal Scholarship Competition" available to Macomb, Oakland and Wayne County music students of high school age.

An $800 grand prize educational cash award and four $400 in-state music camp scholarships will be given to outstanding high school musicians who are winners of the MSC competition. In addition, all winners will be offered the opportunity to perform with the Madrigal Choral and participate in a Michigan Opera Theater production during the 1998-99 season.

In order to be eligible, each student must be enrolled in a public or private high school (grades nine to 12) in the Tri-County area, between the ages of 14-18, and hold amateur status.

The applicant must submit two se-
