scent and goes great in soups and stews.

- Nutcrackers. Whether antique or new, these soldierly tools can break walnuts or just decorate a windowsill.

GOURMETS-ON-THE-GO:

Bless their hearts. Their hobby is cooking — if they could find the time. They're on intimate terms with every salad bar in town. These will keep them eating as they run:

- Micro-colors. Now there's a tiny "Half-pint" microwave oven by Sharp. It comes in five sensational colors, so your harried friends can have color-coordinated microwave ovens wherever they go.

- Quick Liqueur. Exotic liqueurs make great gifts, as well as speedy desserts (poured over vanilla ice cream).

Kahlua, a coffee liqueur, offers a free recipe book (write to Kahlua, Dept. H., P.O. Box 130, Los Angeles, CA 90078-0230.) New Mozart Chocolate Liqueur is a chocolate lover's dream come true in festive gold wrapper.

- Book Bites. Two terrific new time-savers are "The Complaint I Hate to Cook Book," by Peg Bracken (Harcourt Brace Jovanovich) and "Mastering Microwave Cooking" by Marcia Cone and Thelma Snyder (Simon & Schuster).

- Fast-Food Enhancers (and inexpensive edibles). Give a leftover enlivener; a jar of fancy mustard. To add some zing to quick salads give a tin of extra virgin olive oil or a bottle of herb flavored vinegar.

Finally, if the price is no problem, forget the shopping, wrapping and worry that "they might already have one." Give your kitchen wizard friends a gift certificate for dinner for two at a restaurant they've yet to try.
