

Cub Scout Pack 318 of Wooddale Elementary School in Farmington Hills held its annual Parent/Son Creative Cake Bake.

Each boy, with guidance from a parent, decorated a cake of his own design, on whatever subject or theme he chose. "The results were imaginative and out of this world," said Tim Kemp, cubmaster.

As you would expect, there were cakes using Cub Scout themes like Pinewood Derby cars, Cub Scout hats and various scouting emblems. But there were others like the Teepee cake and the Fort Wilderness cake (made with six boxes of cake mix) and the Television cake. There were 35 cakes entered in the "everybody wins" affair. Each boy who entered received an "official" first-place ribbon and a remembrance patch.

"The real prize the boys received, however, was the immense pride in having created their own masterpiece and the realization and self-confidence that there was so much more out there yet to create," Kemp said.
