

When the party ends . . .

Parties in Paper do double duty — they help with the pre-planning, but they also are around when the party ends. The Farmington Hills company, owned by Karen Rosender (left) and Ruth Weingarten, offer an alternative to sending flowers or fruit. Their offerings combine paperware and gourmet foods, attractively packaged. And a lot of things they include can be used again and again. The Ultimate Bowl, shown at the right) is an example. It's filled to the rim with salad tongs, punch ladle, as well as coordinated paper and plastics plus a complete assortment of non-perishable gourmet delectables. At the left is the Coffee and Tea Party Basket. For more information, call 661-2834.
