OUTSTANDING STUDENT

The traditional Kalamazoo College Honors Convocation recognized 50 students for outstanding achievement.

Francine Green of Farmington Hills received the Department of Physical Education Prize. It is awarded to those students who as freshmen best combined leadership and scholarship in promoting athletics, physical education and recreation.

She also received the Kalamazoo College Women's Association Prize. This is awarded to the student who, during the first year at the college, has been outstanding in working to encourage diversity within the college community and interaction among students of varied cultural, racial and religious backgrounds.

DEAN'S LIST

Kent Polkinghorne of Farmington Hills was named to the dean's list at Michigan Technological University in Houghton.

Kenneth Lipka of Farmington Hills was named to the dean's list at Ohio Northern University. He is a freshman majoring in mechanical engineering.

Theresa Whelan and Cheryl Dickow of the Farmington area were named to the dean's list at the University of Michigan-Dearborn.

INTERNING

Matthew Kramer of Farmington is working this semester as a commercial lending intern for Comerica in Detroit. This internship was arranged through the liberal arts program in professional management at Albion College.

Kramer, a 1985 graduate of Redford Catholic Central High School, is a junior at Albion majoring in economics and management.

The professional management program at Albion College requires that students complete at least two internships in their particular area of professional interest.

These internships allow students to gain experience in developing work related skills along with the opportunity to observe and analyze the workings of a firm. The advantage of combining the practical experience of an internship with the theoretical knowledge of the class room has been demonstrated by the successful placement of program graduates.

HONOR SOCIETY

Cindy Smith, daughter of Mary Ann and Don Smith of Farmington Hills, was elected for membership into Tau Beta Pi, the national engineering honor society.

Tau Beta Pi represents the highest honor that can be achieved by an engineering student. Membership is awarded on the basis of high scholarship and exemplary character.

Smith is a senior at the University of Michigan and expects to graduate with a degree in materials science and engineering in December.

EARN SCHOLARSHIP

Josephine Cassar of Farmington Hills received the Sigurd Rialow Scholarship at Oakland Community College for the winter semester.

Zella Meyers of Farmington Hills received the Orchard Ridge Scholarship at Oakland Community College for the winter semester.

WHO'S WHO

Lucy Cocimiglio of Farmington was selected a national outstanding leader in the 1988 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

She is a senior majoring in biology and pre-med at Madonna College, Livonia.

GRAND PRIX

Kristin Gordon of Farmington Hills is one of 20 women selected by Purdue University to be a Grand Prix Girl.

The women will help promote Grand Prix events by raising money for scholarships, escorting dignitaries, talking to students who live on campus and helping in the Grand Prix office. They were selected by petitions and interviews. They will work with their male counterparts, the Grand Prix Promoters.

Gordon is a freshman majoring in communications on the West Lafayette, Ind., campus.
