Mail Order Makeover

Mario-Max make holiday hairdo predictions

Mario Blonati and Max Rieger, hair stylists and owners of the Mario-Max Salon, made their predictions for the season's holiday hairdos, and then announced a new hair styling idea called "Mail Order Makeovers."

The two stylists concur on their hair fashion statements for the holidays and into the new year. Simple chic shapes, the use of European inspired twists and chignons, hair ornaments both for daytime and evening, shiny clear color with attention to the combinations of highlighting, and above all, clean healthy hair.

Mail Order Makeovers are $20. The client sends a clear black and white photo of themselves, with a check or money order, in return for an artist's original rendering of a design that can be used as guide for a change of hairdo. Both Mario and Max will confer with the artist to achieve the proper style for the individual with attention to all of the factors they consider when working with someone in the salon.

The two have been in their partnership business since 1980, in Loehman's Hunter Square. The address is 31225 Orchard Lake Road, Farmington Hills 48018.

The two are known for their "headlines" predictions, their trend statements, their apprentice pro-
