

police/fire calls

Listed below are some of the Farmington-area police, fire and court cases filed during the past week.

• POWER OUTAGES

Nearly 1,000 Detroit Edison customers in Farmington Hills lost power for varying time periods because of Tuesday's snow and wind storm.

About 1,000 residents in an area bounded by 13 Mile, Grand River, Drake and I-275 had service interrupted for eight hours. About 65 customers in the 12 Mile-Quail Hollow area lost power for four hours. Another 25 customers in the Danvers-12 Mile area were without service for five hours.

Power was restored for all by Wednesday, said Earl Floyd, Oakland Division customer and marketing services general supervisor.

• WEAPONS SEIZED

Three 17-year-old Novi men are charged with stealing a telephone from a room at the Envoy Inn in Farmington Hills. One of the men also face charges for possessing a billy club and a survival knife.

Arraigned Dec. 13 before Magistrate Dennis Phenev of Farmington, the three stood mute to charges of breaking and entering of a building with intent to commit larceny. Innocent pleas were entered. They were released on personal bond pending a preliminary examination in 47th District Court. Conviction could bring a sentence of up to 10 years in prison.

One of the men also is charged with possessing a forbidden weapon (a billy club) and carrying a dangerous weapon in a vehicle (a survival knife). He also stood mute to those charges and innocent pleas were entered. Conviction of either count brings a penalty of up to five years in prison.

The charges stem from the theft of a telephone about midnight Dec. 13 from the Envoy Inn, 38300 Grand River. The suspects were stopped in a car soon after, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

• FIRE INJURY

An occupant of a house on Lyncroft was burned while putting out a grease fire on the kitchen stove Dec. 13.

He was treated at Botsford General Hospital, Farmington Hills.

The fire extended to cabinets overhead and the stove fan. The kitchen floor also burned. There was smoke damage throughout the one-story house, according to a Farmington Hills Fire Department report. Damage was estimated at $6,000.

• ATTIC FIRE

A fire in the fireplace spread to the attic and caused about $25,000 in damage to a one-story house on Edna Dec. 11.

Investigation revealed that the fireplace was built too close to combustibles. Flames were confined to the attic and the fireplace, according to a Farmington Hills Fire Department report.

• GUNSHOTS HEARD

Gunshots reported along Ridgewood at 1 p.m. Dec. 12 turned out to be two boys, ages 11 and 12, shooting at a wood target in the back yard of a house with rifles belonging to one of their grandmothers.

None of the three knew it was illegal to do so in a residential area, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

• TICKETS ISSUED

A 24-year-old Westland man was ticketed for operating a generator at a construction site at Nine Mile and Karen Place Dec. 13, in violation of the city's "no Sunday construction" ordinance, according to a Farmington Hills police report.
