Tour group heading for exotic Morocco

Morocco is the next destination for Lark Tours of Birmingham, directed by Lois Kozlow. Kozlow, who took a group to Spain this fall, said this will really be an extension of the Spanish trip where the 24 travelers enjoyed seeing the Moorish influence on the country and its culture. The Morocco trip will be March 15-29. The travelers will spend three nights in Rabat, one night in Marrakesh, three nights in Fez, four nights in Meknes, two in Oazazate and one in Casablanca. They will be visiting Roman ruins and gardens, the souks of Fez and Marrakesh, eating the best of the local cuisine and staying in elegant and picturesque hotels, even one at an oasis.

Kozlow said, "March is really the best time to go. Morocco is the gateway to the Sahara. Where can you go and see camels and tents and fairs? We'll be visiting the craft centers, seeing the rug makers and visiting historical sites."

For information on the trip, call Lark Tours, 642-5512.
