

The Cantata Academy will perform its popular Christmas concert at 8 p.m. Friday, Dec. 18, at the First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham.

The Cantata Academy is a 50-member choir that has appeared with the Detroit Symphony and has made seven concert tours of Europe.

Frederick Bellinger, music director and conductor, has led the group since 1971.

The featured work at this concert will be Daniel Pinkham's Christmas Cantata for chorus and double brass choir. The Brass Ensemble will also accompany Cantata Academy in the familiar and traditional Christmas music on the program, which will include works of John Rutter, William L. Dawson, Charles Ives and Healey Willan. There will also be a selection of Hanukkah songs and the traditional audience sing-along to celebrate the holiday in the inimitable Cantata Academy style.

Tickets, $10 each, may be purchased at the door. For further information, call 271-8946.

Marimba soloist to perform

Ken Wolin, marimba soloist, will give a free concert at Oak Park Library at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 27.

Wolin, currently a junior at Oberlin Conservatory of Music, is a student of Michael Rosen. He previously studied with Sam Tundo of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and has performed with the Birmingham-Bloomfield Symphony Orchestra.

Wolin was a semi finalist in the Quest for Excellence competition and a soloist in the Oberlin Conservatory Honors Recital this fall.

He will perform works by Keiko Abe, J.S. Bach, Akira Miyoshi and Gordon Stout. The library is at 12400 Oak Park Blvd., Oak Park.

Design contest opens

Contest rules are available now to Michigan Wildlife artists who wish to enter paintings for consideration in Michigan's trout/salmon on and waterfowl stamp design contests next April.

Artists have until March 18 to submit their entries for the stamp contests, which will be held in conjunction with the Michigan Wildlife Habitat Foundation Art Festival, April 7-10, at the Southfield Civic Center in Southfield.

Last year's trout winning entry, the Atlantic salmon, and the past three winning duck contest species — the green-winged teal, goldeneye and the ring-necked duck — will not be eligible as a theme for the 1988 contest. Contest organizers encourage artists to submit entries of those species which have not been featured on past stamps.

Submitted paintings will be judged April 9. Winning entries will appear on the 1988 Michigan waterfowl stamp, purchased by nearly 60,000 duck hunters annually, and the 1989 Michigan trout/salmon stamp, bought by nearly 350,000 anglers each year.

Trout/salmon contest rules may be obtained by contacting Barbara Walker, Department of Natural Resources (DNR) Fisheries Division, P.O. Box 30028, Lansing, MI 48909, 517-373-1280. Waterfowl contest rules are available through Sandy McBride, DNR Wildlife Division, P.O. Box 30028, Lansing, MI 48909, 517-373-1263.
