Bars serve up alcohol - free drinks agree there has been a significant increase in requests for "mocktails," pr., on New Year's Ewe. But not between the creased here," said Jack Dunleavy of Dunleavy's Pub & Grub in Farmington. And if you look around, the non-alcoholic offertings have gotten bigger. A couple years ago, it sell strength of the control of th arnsking. Iney know that the poince are just sitting out there waiting to stop them."

She's right, according to 6gt. Ray She's right, according to 6gt. Ray followed by the Farmington Hills followed by the Farmington Hills followed by the city has noticed a decrease in drunk driving offenses, officers are told to be more cautious about drinking drivers on New Year's Eve and are told to look for tell-tale signs while patrolling. Last year, police logged 35 accidents between Dec. 29 and Jan. 5. Only one accident involved drinking. Cranston said.

"It's a combination of an aggressive alcohol enforcement image, more responsible drinking on the part of the public and bar owners providing tast service for patrons," Cranston said. "There's a lot going on to provide a way home for drinking drivers this year."

heavily by MADD.

D. DENNISON'S Seafood Tavern in Farmington Hills, like most local cateries, will serve non-alcoholic clinks to one member of a party designated the driver.

Two popular non-alcoholic beers, Mossay and Barbican, are served at Dennison's, along with Paradise Quencher, a strawberry, pincappie juice and ecoenut drink.

Just about any drink can be made non-alcoholic, bar managers say, Drinkers just have to ask for them since most are not listed in the menu.

John Parmentier, food and hover-menu.

John Parmentier, food and beverage manager at Freivinkles, is expecting a quied reviewles, is expecting a quied restaurant in the Radisson Suites Hotel in Farmington Hills.

The hotel is offering a package deal on New Year's Eve, dinner and a hotel room that provides a quiet place for patrons to recuperate it hey've had too much to drink.

"We don't anticipate any presentier said. "We should have a real quiet group here."

THE IDEA, Blen said, is not to discourage drinking and driving. "It's OK for adults not to drink," he said. "It they have to, then the bar owner should know that they're dispensing an intoxicant and some-body's good judgment might not be there."

owner should know that they're MADD and radio station WOMC-FM, will be free taxi rides on a "first come, first serve" basts.

MADD volunteers will man phones at the radio station between 10:30 p.m. and 4 a.m. New Year 10:30 proquests for the service Last year, MADD received more than 200 requests for the service than 200 requests for the service think we have a great deal to do with reducing drinking driver accidents."

That statistic has Blen worten than they were a great deal to do with reducing drinking driver accidents."

That statistic has Blen worten than to more determined to halt drinking they are a great deal to do with reducing drinking driver accidents."

That statistic has Blen worten and writing that we have to concentrate the few parting that the few parting that

Officer Christine Guinan of the Fermington Department of Pub-lic Safety is helping the Oakland County MADD chapter "tie one on" for the holidays. MADD chapters nationally are asking citi-zens to tie a red ribbon to their left car door mirror or antenna to remind everyone not to drink and drive with Project Red Rib-bon. Police agencies are "tying one on" patrol cars to let their communities know that they care.

O'Sheehan's in Farmington Hills, plus many other area restaurants and bars, offer a selection of non-alcoholic wines and drinks.

BIRMINGHAM - WARREN SOUTHFIELD

355-7900

business briefs

If you recently opened a shop, captured an award, earned a promotion, are planning a new venture or project, or have information about other business-related happenings — and there's a Farmington-area connection — we'd like to hear from you so we can share your news item with other Observer readers. Send items to: Business Briefs, Farmington Observer, 3203 Grand River, Farmington 48024.

NEW VP
Michael Sandnes, formerly of Farmington, has joined Mercy MedCare as vice president of corporate marketing and business development.
In announcing

In announcing the appointment, Edward Stein, president and chief executive of icer of Mercy Med-Care and Mercy Hospital, Willes-Barre Page 1981

fleer of Mercy
Med-Care and Mercy Hospital,
Wilkes-Barre, Pasaid, Mr. Sandnes brings with him a Michael extensive back. Sandnes ground of health care experience and he will play an important role in the development of new opportunities and strategies for corporation growth and development as well as provide direction for marketing, planning, mergers and acquisitions.
Sandnes most recently served as corporate-regional director of marketing and development for Universal Health Services, King of Prussis, Pa. He was responsible for all marketing and physician development activities for 11 of Unit's hospitals throughout the western United States.

A veteran of the U.S. Army, where States.

A veteran of the U.S. Army, where he held the rank of 1st lieutenant, Sandree these professional experiences of the professional experience of the

The Farmington native has been with the company since 1978, serving first as a brokerage representative in Chicago, then as district manager of the company's Omaha and Detroit Offices.

Detroit Offices.

NEW IN TOWN
Bleu Moon, a new concept in retailing for the high-fashion-conscious elementary and juntor high girt, has opened in Hunters Square, Farmington Hills.

The store, the third in Hunters Square for owners Ben and Elaine Siegal, reflects the latest fashion trends of the Soho in New York City and Melrose Avenue in Los Angeles.

Top fashions lines such as C.P. Shades, Blanc Bleu, B.A.D., Novelle and Guees stock the art decodesigned store, Taking their inspiration from the New York and Los Angeles fashion districts, the Siegals and architect from Ray have created a fashion environment using natural cernent and squa water and the control of the store of the control of the store of the control of the store of the sto highly personal customer service.

SHE'S PROMOTED
The Detroit office of Peat
Marwick Main & Co. has promoted Lisa Mathieson to senior manager from audit manager.
The Farmington Hills resident will be responsible for accounting and auditing matters relating to a variety of clients.
Mathieson is a certified public accountant. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants.
Peat Marwick Main & Co. is a provider of accounting and auditing, tax and management consulting services.

FEATURED SPEAKER

at St. Edenter, Fort of FEATURED SPEAKER Joe Derocher of Focal Point Studios, Farmington, will be featured to grace and the Jonany meeting of the Ford Camera Club.

NAMED MANAGER
 Keith Grass was named district manager for the David J. Joseph Co., Chociment, Ohlo. ...
 The meeting is excheduled for 7:30
 m. Tuesday, Jan. 13.

In his first competition with the Professional Photographers of Mich-igan this year, Derocher took six of eight awards of achievement, five trophies, two blue ribbons, two yel-low ribbons and top score for a sin-cial point.

low ribbons and top however.

The club meets in the Scientific Research Laboratory Auditorium at Ford's Research and Engineering Center, Dearborn. For more information, call Ken Fina, at 568-2719 between 8-8 p.m.

e Final Tally

Final tally is in. This year's Little CaesaryWheels For Meals canned food drive, sponsored by Farmington Hills-based Little Caesary with the canned food drive, sponsored by Farmington Hills-based Little Caesars and WLL-Radio as well as Detrop tarea.

Little Caesars/Wheels for Meals, no et the area's largest canned food drives, expects to provide 88,000 meals with the food collected between Nov. 27 and Dec. 18. The food will be distributed to 233 social service agencies served by the Gleaners Community Food Bank and the Food Bank of Oakland County.

Farmington Observer

(USPS 187-840)
Published every Monday and Thuraday by Observer & Ecoontic Newspapers, 1225 Sewers, Birmingham, MI 46012. Second-class postage paid at Birmingham, MI 46012. Second-class postage paid at Birmingham, MI 46017. Or 100 Sewers at mail (subscrible), change 2420, Lucha, MI 4611, Teephone 591-500.
SUBSCRIPTION PARTES (in Oakland County)
One year.

