Musicale stages opera panorama

Farmington Musicale will present Carl Clendenning in "Panorama of American Opera" at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 10, in the Farmington Hills Branch Library on 12 Mile Road east of Farmington Road.

The bass-baritone will be featured in selections from "Porgy and Bess" by George Gershwin and "Susannah" by Carlisle Floyd in an all-American opera program.

Clendenning's most recent role was Don Quixote in "Man of La Mancha" with the Marygrove Lyric Theater Ensemble. He has also sung with Light Opera of Michigan and is the second-place winner of the 1987 National Association of Teachers of Singing competition.

Clendenning, who is director of music at Gesu Church, Detroit, will be the featured soloist in "Saturdays at Four," a chamber music series given in Madame Cadillac Hall, Marygrove College.

He has studied at Wayne State University and is currently a student of James Turner at Marygrove.

The all-opera program will include Farmington Musicale member Faith Rieck, singing from "The Consul" by Gian Carlo Menotti. Judy Reger of Canton and other Musicale members will present selections by American composers Aaron Copland and Carlisle Floyd.

February has been designated as American Music Month by the National Federation of Music Clubs. "Panorama of American Opera," Farmington Musicale's February concert, will be submitted to the Parade of American Music chairman for recognition at the national level.

The program is open to the public at no charge.
