

City rivals clash on court

Katie Doll of Farmington Hills Harrison (above) goes airborne in preparation for an attempted spike Monday night when the Hawks took on Farmington in volleyball. Doll and her teammates prevailed in three games over the Falcons, 15-4, 13-15, 15-6. Harrison teammate Lisa Donovan (8) awaits the outcome of Doll's spike. Farmington's Katie McDonald (below) passes the ball to a teammate. The two teams, along with North Farmington, will get together again at 3:45 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 24, when the Observer sponsors its annual meet at Farmington High School.

Cage rivals collide for net title this time

Livonia Ladywood and Farmington Mercy, longtime rivals on the basketball court, will battle tonight for a title of a different kind.

The two teams meet at 7:30 p.m. at Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher to decide the volleyball title in the A-B Division of the Catholic League.

Both teams swept through the first two rounds of the Central Division playoffs Monday night to get to the finals.

Ladywood, the No. 1-ranked team in Class A, defeated Southgate Aquinas, 15-3 and 15-4 in the quarterfinals, before ousting Harper Woods Regina in three games, 15-1, 15-1 and 15-1.

Mercy got by Dearborn Divine Child, 15-1 and 15-5, and downed Harper Woods Bishop Foley in the semifinals, 15-12, 13-15 and 15-3.

"We split with them during the regular season, so it looks like it will be an exciting match tonight," Mercy coach Tim DeBello said. "I hope we play our best. I know my girls will be excited to get at them."

LADYWOOD, 42-2 overall, breezed to its opening-round win over Aquinas. Setter Mary Kelly's 15 assists led the rout and Corinne McNamara became the recipient of those passes, recording six kills.

Regina defeated Ladywood in the first game of the semifinal, but a key block by Maureen Knittel in the second game ignited the Blazers' charge.

Knittel had four service aces in the second game against Regina, and Sarah Adzima recorded eight kills out of 17 attempts in the Regina match.

Serving took the spotlight for Mercy in its first-round win over Divine Child, but front-line and back-line play sparked for the Marlins in the semi-final against Bishop Foley.

Meg Pinkerton registered five kills in 15 attacks in the three-game win over Foley. DeBello added that Mercy received fine play from back-line performers Lynn Elliott Christy Johnson and Kristin Orlandoni.

Redford Bishop Borgess, the other Observerland team in the Central Division playoffs, was ousted by Foley in the quarterfinals, 15-5 and 15-7.

LIVONIA STEVENSON raised its overall mark Monday to 27-4, defeating Walled Lake Western, 15-13, 6-15 and 15-4 in a crossover game in the Western Lakes Athletic Association.

Sue Zatorski led visiting Stevenson with seven kills, and Renee Bonser added two blocks and four kills. Jenny Sladowski, Sherry Jahns and Chris Stanaker excelled in the serving department, collecting a combined seven service aces.

In another key WLAA match, Plymouth Salem upset Western Division leader Livonia Churchill, 15-13, 9-15, 15-11.

Asaka Motowyma led the visiting Rocks with 14 kills.

Blazers end Stevenson reign in S'craft tourney

Ladywood's Tom Teeters has been running the Schoolcraft College volleyball tournament for years, but as a coach, he had never won it.

That all changed Saturday as the Blazers lived up to their No. 1 Class A ranking in the state polls, outlasting 29 other teams to win the coveted title.

It also ended Livonia Stevenson's four-year reign as champion.

Ladywood broke the Spartans' domination with a resounding 15-1, 15-6 victory in the quarterfinals in a rematch of last year's final. Ladywood then went on quickly to defeat Redford Bishop Borgess in the semifinals (15-6, 15-5) and Dearborn Edsel Ford in the championship match (15-8, 15-1) that only lasted 25 minutes. See statistical summary.

"It's been 15 years and I think we earned it," said Teeters, whose team is 49-2 overall. "But it took a lot of hard work and repetition."

Ladywood's play against Stevenson was nearly flawless. The Blazers frustrated the Spartans with their relentless digging. One big defensive play, in particular, led to a string of seven unanswered points.

"IT'S ALWAYS disappointing when the returning champion can't get past the quarterfinals," said Stevenson coach Lee Cagle. "But there's no question Ladywood is the better team this year. We lost two key people last year and they didn't lose any. There's no way we have the firepower or blocking that they have."

volleyball

"What was disappointing was that we served terribly. We didn't help ourselves with good serving. We dug ourselves a hole and you can't play defense all the time against a team like Ladywood. Also, our set selections were terrible."

Stevenson's two top hitters, Laura Brown and Sue Zatorski, were stymied in their efforts, but so were everyone else who played against the Blazers.

Borgess coach Jerry Abraham gave his endorsement of the newly crowned champions.

"They're smart and they have experience," he said. "They block well and they dig well. We had a hard time putting the ball on the floor. They were really digging them up."

KEYING THE LADYWOOD attack was Mary Kelley and Corinne McNamara, whom Teeters calls "one of the best one-two combinations around."

"Mary Kelley's setting has improved drastically," said the Ladywood coach. "We don't have a lot of standout hitters, but Mary is also one of our best."
