

Musicians play happy tunes

Musicians of Swanee Alley

The Musicians of Swanee Alley will present "Fills to Purple Melancholy" at 8 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 25, in Varner Recital Hall at Oakland University.

Popular music of the Renaissance period and assorted other playful tunes are on tap. The musicians will present music for voices, viols and lutes, fantasias, theatre pieces and lessons for consort.

Swanne Alley, named after a 16th century professional Elizabethan ensemble, specializes in late Renaissance English and Italian repertory. Since its founding in 1976, the group has received consistently enthusiastic reviews on both sides of the Atlantic. "Fills to Purple Melancholy" at 8 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 25, in Varner Recital Hall at Oakland University.

Co-directors are Lyle Nordstrom and Paul O'Dette. Nordstrom heads the early music program at OU and is a recognized authority on early music performance. O'Dette heads the early music program at Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N.Y.

Tickets are $10 general admission, $6 for senior citizens and children and $4 for OU students. For details, call the Center for the Arts box office at 370-3013 from 11 a.m.-5 p.m. weekdays.

Free, lighted parking is available at Varner Hall.
