Musicale scholarship competition under way

Applications are available now for all students in grades 7-12 who want to compete in Farmington Musical's "Award for Excellence in Music."

The annual spring competition offers cash awards for youths who wish to further their music education. It is open to students who attend a Farmington public, parochial or private school; to children or students of a Farmington Musicales member and to those whose primary residence is Farmington or Farmington Hills but attend school elsewhere.

Applications have been distributed to the music department heads in all the Farmington schools, however, one will be sent if there is a request to Beverly Nemesine at 476-1729. The applications must be completed and returned, postmarked by midnight Friday, March 11.

THIS YEAR the competition will be Monday, March 28, in United Methodist Church. Categories will be in piano, instrumental and voice. Cash awards will be given to both middle and senior high school divisions. Voice competition will be limited to high school students.

The Strey-McCallum Memorial Piano Award is a single award given to the student who is voted by the judges as the "most outstanding pianist," regardless of age.

First and second-place finishers will perform their winning compositions at 3 p.m. Sunday, April 17, in North Farmington High School. Awards will be presented at this time, and the Strey-McCallum Award winner will be announced.

Farmington Musicales is a member of the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Old friend.
New address.

Now the Rehabilitation Institute is closer than ever to our friends in Oakland County with the opening of the new Haggerty Center.

The Haggerty Center for NeuroRehabilitation provides a comprehensive range of specialized services and programs for head injury rehabilitation. Group and individual programs are available in hourly, half-day and full-day schedules. In addition to physician care, services include physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, neurorehabilitation, social work, recreational therapy and others—all aimed at building functional skills and independent abilities.

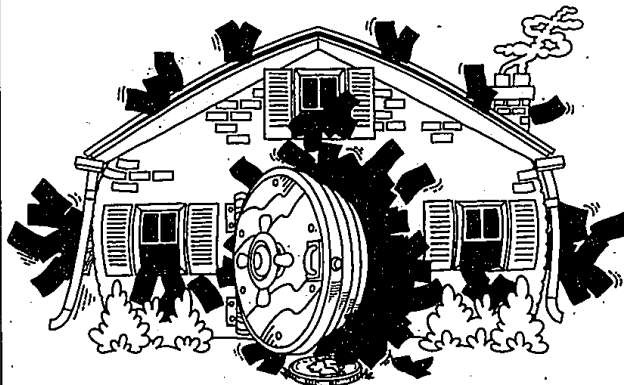

Visit our new center at Haggerty and Nine Mile Road or call us for more information.

THERE'S MONEY IN YOUR HOUSE...

...And no, it's not between the sofa cushions. It's in the equity you've accumulated from all those years of house payments. That equity can get you a line of credit from Guaranty Federal, from $5,000 to $100,000, depending on the value of your home and the amount of your outstanding mortgage. Once you've been approved for the overall credit amount, and have closed your loan, you're all set. All you have to do is write a check for any size loan you need, up to your total credit limit (minimum check: $150.00). Or just stop by a Guaranty Federal branch office and get the cash you need. You pay interest only on the amount you've used. It's like having your own private vault, and Guaranty Federal is keeping it stocked! So the next time you need a loan, get your house to co-sign at Guaranty Federal. 374-5300.
