

DIA shows Malle's 'Children'

Three Jewish students, played by Raphael Fejto, Damien Salot and Arnaud Hemriet, and Father Jean (Philippe Morier-Genoud), the priest who sheltered them, are lead away by a German soldier in "Au Revoir Les Enfants (Goodbye Children)."

SPECIAL PRESENTATION:
"Au Revoir Les Enfants" ("Goodbye Children") (A+) (PG) 103 minutes.

Louis Malle's ("Atlantic City") intensely personal memories of the Holocaust is nominated for an Oscar as Best Foreign Language Film. In 1944 three young Jewish boys were hidden from the Gestapo at the Catholic school Malle attended near Fontainebleau. Malle's quiet film of schoolboy life is all the more significant in the way its understatement emphasizes the Nazi horror without rhetoric or bombast. Superb performances. At the Detroit Film Theater, Detroit Institute of Arts. 15 weekend performances March 18-27. RECENT RELEASES

"Cop" (*)
Police thriller starring James Woods and Lesley Ann Warren is supposed to open again this week. Promises, promises...

"Masquerade" (F) (R) 95 minutes.
Unimaginative story of heiress Meg Tilly and three fellows after her money. One of them is Rob Lowe, but even his handsome visage can't save this film from reaching a record low in dullness. It's so-o-o boring.

"Off Limits" (*) (R).
Army's Criminal Investigation unit at work stars William Dafoe and Gregory Hines.

"Vice-Versa" (D+) (PG) 100 minutes.
Trite and unconvincing as father (Judge Reinhold) and son switch bodies, causing that of a stolen Thai religious artifact. The few funny lines aren't worth dragging yourself out to see this reprise of the recent "Like Father, Like Son."

STILL PLAYING:
"Action Jackson" (C) (R) 90 minutes.
Action movie set in Detroit pits police Sgt. "Action" Jackson (Carl Weathers) against corrupt auto magnate. Vanily is the sexy singer caught between them and an abundance of drugs, violence and wild car chases in this predictable film.

"Batteries Not Included" (C+) (PG) 100 minutes.
Spielberg's latest release features extraterrestrials plus Jessica Tandy and Hume Cronyn as an elderly couple who, along with several others, face eviction from their beloved city apartment building. Unusual relationship develops between the e.t.'s and the humans. Too bland despite some humorous scenes. Reviewed by Jeff Litnatta.

"Broadcast News" (A-) (R) 135 minutes.
Entertaining and well-done, albeit contrived, story of life in the network news fast lane. Holly Hunter, Albert Brooks and William Hurt revel in all the glitz and sham of contemporary newscasting. It makes you wonder about "film as it is."

"Cry Freedom" (A) (PG) 154 minutes.
Fine, evocative, thoughtful presentation. True story of white South African journalist Donald Woods (Kevin Kline), who became committed to the Black Consciousness Movement through his friendship with the movement's leader, Steve Biko (Denzel Washington). Excellent character studies directed by Sir Richard Attenborough ("Gandhi"), but the film is curiously "cool" and too intellectual for such a passionate subject.

"The Dead" (A) (PG) 80 minutes.
John Huston's last film is superb characterization of a two-of-the-century Irish family. Based on James Joyce's story of the same name from "The Dubliners." Warm, evocative camera work and Huston's fine direction make this a lovely cinematic moment.

"Eddie Murphy Raw" (*) (R)
Eddie Murphy in footage taken from live concerts.

"Fatal Attraction" (A) (R) 110 minutes.
Michael Douglas, family man, and his one-night stand that turns into a nightmare at the hands of a psychotic woman (Glenn Close) in this old story but well-told in an exciting entertainment.

"The Last Emperor" (A-) (PG-13) 125 minutes.
Bernardo Bertolucci's stunning presentation of the epic tale of China's last emperor, Pu Yi. At age 3 he came to the throne three years before Sun Yat Sen's 1911 revolution. His fascinating story of survival through two world wars and Mao's Communist takeover of mainland China is a fine historical lesson and a gripping drama of human courage.
