Speaker for the evening is Nora Martin, from the special education department, Eastern Michigan University. Her subject is "Learning How to Learn."

Meetings sponsored by the chapter are open to the public free.

WELCOME WAGON of Farmington-Farmington Hills hosts a "Welcome Coffee" for all women who are area newcomers at 1 p.m. Wednesday, March 23, in one of the member's homes. The meeting will introduce newcomers to the many activities the club has to offer.

Reservations are requested by calling Donna Cuddabeck, 476-2817.

FARMINGTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY meets at 8 p.m. Wednesday, March 23, in Farmington Branch Library, State and Liberty.

Program for the evening is called "Emily Butterfield." Butterfield was Michigan's first woman architect. She designed the First United Methodist Church of Farmington on Grand River and the clubhouse for Glen Oaks Country Golf Course on 13 Mile Road.

All club news and announcements for this column are to be addressed to Club Circuit, Farmington Observer, 33203 Grand River, Farmington 48024. The information must arrive before noon on the Monday before Thursday publication.

Honored for service

Farmington Area Community Women honor one of its own for her service to the community every three months. Joyce Allender took the honors two times in a row.

She received the awards, as the group's standing membership chair, for the accomplishments she made in conjunction with "Get Acquainted Night" and the new members' orientation into the service organization.

She co-chairs the birthday parties that the community women host every month for the residents in Marillac Hall and co-chaired the club's "Mom & Kids Summer Celebration." Allender worked toward the "Helium Balloon Launch," given in observance of Michigan's 150th birthday, worked in the lemonade concession booth operated during Founder's Festival, and helped with "Lunch With the Great Pumpkin."

She chaired the club's Arts and Crafts Sale, Letters from Santa project and oversaw the distribution of food baskets given for Thanksgiving.

Joyce Allender

Now she is working toward the community women's annual spring fund-raiser, "Lunch With the Easter Bunny," set this year for Saturday, March 26.
