The farmington

JOHPHSA & Obsarvar

Wednesday, December 2, 1970

Second Front_Page

FHS Presents 'You Can't Take It With You'

ROMANCE — Greg Steele and Sheila Chemberlin will be seen as the ro-mantic leads Dec. 10 and 12 when Farmington High School presents the Broadway hit "You Can't Take It With You." (Evert photo)

JOHN ROSCOE, Farmington High School drama director, confers with student Deb Mosshamer over the script of "You Can't Take It With You" to be presented at the school Dec. 10 and 12. Miss Mosshamer is assistant director for

Aid Blind

As their fellow members do across the country, Far-mington Lions Club members assist the blind by furnishing services for glasses, Braille watches, white canes and Braille transcribing ma-

Anyone knowing of a blind person in need of these services is asked to call George Namman, 62-5031. The local club is also selining Blind Aid Seals and participates in the enrollment of eligible person in obtaining liming blinds, the Lions are always on the lookout for friendly German Skepherd dogs, Labradors and Golden Retrievers, between the ages of one and two years, for use as leader dogs. None are purchased.

In addition to supporting

In addition to supporting the leader dogs program through the sale of seals, the Farmington Lions also con-tribute to the Penrickton Center, Welcome Home for the Blind.

DALE PRIEMER serves as lighting engineer for the Farmington High School production of "You Can't Take It With You." (Evert photo)

By LIZ WISSMAN

The captivating comedy.

"You Can't Take It With
You," is the first dramatic production of the year at Farmington High School.

It will run two evenings,
Thursday, Dee, 10, and Saturday, Dee, 12 at 8 p.m. in the F.H.S. auditorum.

The Comedy was the Palizer Prize winner of 1984-37,

and has become a classic of its kind, produced over and over again in theatres
throughout the country; and its timeless quality was
proven when it was revived
in 1965 to the delight and
laughter of audiences again.

IF YOU WANT to learn

Essie, Paul and Pennie's daughter, is devoted, to candy-making and toe dancing, while Ed, her husband is torn between the xylophone and the printing-press.

The second daughter, Alice a Sycamore in spirit though not in extravagance, provides the conflict when she and Tony Kirby fall in love Mr.Kirby, Sr., a business tycoon plagued by indigestion, and his socialite spouse, are as unfulfilled and frustrated as millionaires can be. The painful meeting of the two families is aggravated by the consecutive intervention of a wrestling Russian, an inebriated actress and arid squad from the F.B.I.

"Next year, a new addition to the drama curriculum will add more potential development for the students and the department." The courses now offered are: drama-deals with technical and the students and the department of the student develop in individual student develop in individual student develop in the theater. The new class will be play production which will deal with group productions for the school and public and develop a more complete understanding of the theatre for the students. With a curriculum like this the department can cultivate an appreciation of the deater arts more fully."

throughout the country; and its timeless quality was a proven when it was revived in 1985 to the delight and laughter of audiences again.

IF YOU WANT to learn how to enjoy life with just enough money to take it easy; how to select hobbes; how to evade the function tax; or just enjoy an evening laughing—this is the show to see.

All these are demonstrated by the Sycamore family who live in a sphere of heart warming fun. Amiable, philosophical Grandpa Vanderhot collects snakes and stamps.

His daughter, Penny is a palaiter turate playwright because a guest forgot a yearvier. Her husband, lasses can claim a legitimate place in the high school very entire the cellar with Mr. DePluna came to deliver ice eight years ago and just stayed.

Cantata

Hunkele (Rheba), Guy King Bergstrom (Mrs. Kirby), (Paul) Don Holmes (Mr. Bob Brown (Boris KolejDePinna), Bob Chesley (Ed), khov), Holly Orr (Gay Wê,
Reg Massey (Donald), Mike lington), Mark Rose (Repinger (Grandpa), Sheila (Henderson), Nancy Heidi Chamberlin (Alice), Greg (Olga Katrina), Jim Ellis, Steele (Tony Kirby), Al Vas. Mark Rosea Mike Finkbi-silakos (Mr. Kirby), Cindy ner (FBI men).

EFFECT - Alison Boyles is the wardrobe management tress and Diana Hamilton the makeun Farmington High School's first play of the "You Can't Take It With You." (Evert photo)

To Be Sung

A new Christmas cantata in eight parts will receive its premier hearing on Dec. 6 at 6:30 p.m. in a community concert of worship at St. John Lutheran Church on Gill Road in Farmington.

Road in Farmington.

With music by Charlene W.
Slabey, Northville composer
and teacher, and libretto by June Rado of Farmington,
the cantain. "A Slar Out of Jacob", will be performed by the senior choir of St. John Church, and presents the Christmas narrative as a unique experience from the point of view of God, the Father.

Written for full chorus with

Written for full chorus with Written for full chorus with piano and organ accompaniment, the work will be directed by Marie Walck, choir director of St. John, and accompanied by Sandra Weiss, organist, with the composer at the piano. Soloists will be Gloria Richardson, alto, Ted

The Rev. Charles Fox, pas-tor of St. John, invites the community to attend.

Returns

Navyman William J. Van Meter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Van Meter of 23130 Colgate, Farmington, has returned to Mayport, Fia., from a Mediterranean deployment aboard the air-craft carrier USS Saratoga.

the farming too enterprise Onliserver

EMORY DANIELS, Editor Editorial Office 23421 Farmington Ros Farmington, Mich. Phone 474-6225

Home Delivery Servi fewestand per copy, 15e

Phone 474-8737

Ablished every Wedneso and Weekend

(for 5%% time savings...with passbook convenience)

Move to higher earnings ... with a 5%% Time Deposit Account in handy passbook form. With your own personal Manufacturers Bank passbook instead of a certificate, you can watch your savings grow, compounded continuously for the entire 2-year maturity period, Accounts may be opened for as little as $500. Additions of $50 or more can be made at any time. Each deposit matures in two years.

Want a shorter maturity period? Manufacturers also offers a 51/1% Time Deposit Account in passbook form with a one-year maturity. Minimum deposit is $500; additions of $50 or more may be made at any time.

So if the combination of top bank interest and passbook convenience appeals to you, move your money

to Manufacturers—

MANUFACIURERS