

Artistry in clay

The exhibit, "Power Over the Clay," continues at Detroit Institute of Arts through April 17. Among the works by outstanding local artists are the stoneware with ash glaze bowl at far left by Maja Grotell who lived and worked at Cranbrook from 1938 to 1966. At immediate left is a bowl by John Foster who lived and worked in Birmingham for many years. The exhibit is open, free of charge, during regular museum hours, 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday-Sunday.

Rolling Oaks West is an exclusive neighborhood of 50 custom built homes. Prices from $242,000.

Windemere is more...

much more than a convalescent home or home for seniors.

Windemere is truly a very special place.

Includes exceptional skilled care nursing and medical services while preserving the environmental characteristics of a historic Frank O. Geary Residential Community. There is a complete operation between the SKILLED CARE NURSING RESIDENCE on the upper level and the SKILLED CARE RESIDENCE on the lower floor. The Skilled Care gives both levels direct access to the lovely landscaped grounds. Res. Lamp, a caring nursing home professional, and Jerome Frankel, as a residential developer combined their skills to provide superior nursing and medical services in a residential environment that preserves dignity, beauty, and maximum independence. WINDEMERE serves the needs of those requiring state-of-the-art nursing and medical services and WINDEMERE MANOR provides a secure, serene residential environment with nursing and medical services quickly available on an as-needed basis. Hard to come describe Windemere. You must see it to appreciate what it offers. Please drop in or call 648-1700 for an appointment.
