

Cable new broadcast twice each weekday

Tri Outlook News is your local information, announcement and happenings program. Watch Channel 12, Monday through Friday, at 4 p.m. and at 5:55 p.m.

Send your messages and news to Tri Outlook News, c/o SWOCC, 23600 Liberty, Farmington 48024. Our television channel with type-written messages is not functioning. We look forward to being able to relay your schedules and community bulletin board soon.

This Friday, April 22, and Saturday, April 23, we host a regional conference for NATOA. This is the National Association of Telecommunication Officers and Advisors.

The Michigan Chapter, of which I am third-term president, is coordinating the event. Those people with a public-educational-government interest in cable television will find the conference most informative.

Speakers will include Nick Miller, Washington attorney; Alan Krause, Chicago consultant; Craig Gehring, Washington attorney; Dan Barden, general manager of Barden Cable; Ray Butz of Community Telecommunication Network; and Harry Semergian, director of strategic planning from Michigan Bell.

Luncheon speaker will be Jack Caldwell, communications network of Ford Motor Co.

Concurrent workshops planned both days with banquet, tours of Grace & Wild Studios, Victor Duncan and our community access facilities.

Call Lark L.S. Reid for your fee information and reservations, 473-7266
