

Painting in the garden

Painter, weaver and teacher Jim Gilbert, (left with student) will teach a seven-week class, "Private Homes, Private Gardens," beginning at 2 p.m. Sunday. The class, part of the Cranbrook PM program, will be held at a different garden each Sunday, coinciding with flowers each features in season. All of the gardens belong to members of the Cranbrook Gardens Auxiliary. For information and registration, call Cranbrook PM 645-3635.

Duo giving salon program

Salon de Musica III — featuring the Michigan Duo, Ginka Gerova-Ortega, flute, and Vladislav Kovalsky, piano — will be held 3-6 p.m. Sunday at the home of Arnold and Janet Aronoff of Bloomfield Hills. Theme of the recital will be "The Splendor of Russia."

The performers have just completed a seven-cities tour of Michigan and will leave soon for Japan to act again as "Michigan Musical Ambassadors." Their program on Sunday will include works by Rachmaninoff, Tchaikovsky, Borodin and Scriabin.

Both artists have busy careers as soloists as well as duo performers. Each has debuted in Carnegie Hall and performed widely in Europe as well as the United States and Canada.

Their support group, Michigan Duo Society for the Arts, also sponsors the "Candlelight and Velvet" series at Christ Church Cranbrook and other guest artists.

Patron tickets for Salon de Musica III, $150 include two admissions to the concert and a membership in the Society. Other tickets are $38 each or $75 a couple. Make checks payable to MDSA and send to Michigan Duo Society for the Arts, 4342 Ramsgate Lane, Bloomfield Hills, 48013.
