● JEWISH FAME INDUCTEES

Chuck Burns of Southfield is one of three people to be inducted later this year into the Jewish Hall of Fame. The others are Leonard Drose and Sam Bishop.

Burns, who has won 17 Michigan men's championships, 27 national championships and 17 international titles, is one of the nation's pioneers in the sport of table tennis.

During World War II, Burns participated in a USO tour of Europe, Asia and Africa giving exhibitions to the troops. In 1952, Burns was playing captain of the United States team for international competition. He also served as president of the United States Table Tennis Association in 1963 and 1964.

Burns was inducted into the Table Tennis Hall of Fame in 1984.

Brose is considered by many as one of the best tennis players ever from the Detroit area. He led Michigan State University to the Big 10 tennis championship in 1951 and is a five-time city of Detroit champion and three-time state champion.

The late Sam Bishop — born Sam Goldstein in Benton Harbor — was a high school star in baseball and football. He later became a high school coach at Detroit Northwestern where he won six city championships. He also coached track and basketball.

All three of this year's honorees will be inducted into the Michigan Jewish Sports Hall of Fame at the annual banquet scheduled for Nov. 7 at Congregation Shaarey Zedek in Southfield. TV personality Monty Hall is scheduled to be master of ceremonies.

For ticket information, call 552-0018 or 541-1523.

● NAU TO COMPETE

Elizabeth Nau of Bloomfield Hills is scheduled to participate in the annual Seventeen Magazine Tennis Tournament of Champions to be held May 4-7 in Mission Viejo, Calif. It is considered one of the most prestigious national junior girls tournaments on the tennis circuit today.

Nau, a 17-year-old student at Labser High School, will be among the state's competitors, along with Meredith McGrath of Midland, Susan Somerville of Dearborn and Kori Davidson of Farmington Hills. This is Nau's third tournament appearance.

The tournament includes 96 of the nation's top junior players, who were selected based on their top United States Tennis Association sectional and national rankings. It features play in three junior age divisions: 10-, 15- and 14-under.

● 9TH ANNUAL CIVIC STARS

WJR host Joel Alexander will emcee the ninth annual Civic Stars Games to be held 1 p.m. May 1 at Birmingham Brother Rice High School. Former Detroit Lion Len Barry also will participate as a member of a celebrity team.

Sponsored by the Association for Retarded Citizens of Oakland County (ARC/OC), the competition brings together service club members and persons with mental retardation for an afternoon of competition.

Two members from each group will team and compete against other "Civic Stars" in games such as the bean-bag toss, balloon relay, obstacle course run, beach ball crawl and scooter race.

The Civilians, Knights of Columbus and Rotary Club will be among the clubs represented. Each club makes a pledge to sponsor their teams in the competition.

The public may attend.

● ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

Michael Belczak and James Butcher of the St. Mary's Eagles college basketball team recently were named to the NAIA Academic All-American Team. Mark Sulek (1983) and Steve Koplacki (1986) are the only other Eagle players ever to have won that honor.

Belczak, a 6-7 forward from Detroit and Redford St. Agatha High School, has maintained a 3.75 grade-point average (4.00) in Business Administration. Belczak scored 373 points and grabbed 315 rebounds, more than any other player in the district, as the Eagles secured 21 victories and their first playoff appearance since 1984 this past winter.

Butcher, a 6-0 junior guard from Kokomo, Ind., owns a 3.61 GPA in English. Butcher scored a District-leading 90 three-point field goals this year enroute to 408 points and was a strong defensive player.

"The Eagles successful 1987-88 basketball season was greatly enhanced by the recognition achieved by Mike and Jim," said Rev. Stanley Milewski, chairman of the Orchard Lake schools. "The distinction of having two members on this prestigious team emphasizes the pursuit of excellence by St. Mary's College and by its students."

● WOMEN'S SOFTBALL

Women's softball teams can still register for the Class C West Bloomfield Parks and Recreation summer softball league. Play is scheduled for Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the West Bloomfield Community Sports Park on Keith Road north of Commerce Road in West Bloomfield Township.

All teams play an 18-game schedule. The team fee is $295. For more information, call Scott Van Meter at 334-5660.

● SOCCER ACADEMY

Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook will be the site of the 15th annual Midwest Soccer Academy.

The first soccer session slated for the Cranbrook grounds will be from June 19-24 for players 8 years and older. The advanced session for players 12 and older only is slated for June 26 to July 1.

The fee is $195 for commuters and $250 to stay on campus.

Sloba Milewski, a Major Indoor Soccer League goaltender, will conduct the goalkeeping clinic. Klaas De Boer, former pro and collegiate coach, and Bud Lewis, head coach at Wilmington College, are the main camp instructors.

For information, call 628-1008.

● GREEN'S ALL STARS

Joe Green's All-Star basketball team is scheduled to challenge a team from WQPR-TV 627 p.m. May 7 at Southfield High School.

Former professional and University of Detroit star Spencer Haywood is the featured attraction. His brother, Leroy, Detroit Cooley coach Ben Kelso, and Detroit Southwestern coach Perry Williams are other members of Green's all-star team.

Game proceeds benefit the Detroit Association for Retarded Citizens. Tickets are $3 and may be purchased at the door or by calling 631-0292.

● METRO CONFERENCE STARS

Two players each from Auburn Hills, Avondale and Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook made the All-Metro Conference high school boys basketball all-star second team.

Avondale players named to the team included junior Damian Woodmore and senior Jeff Krupp. Cranbrook's representatives are senior Carlos Davis and freshman Tenny Evans.

Cranbrook junior Ivan Boyd and Avondale junior Pat Moggie made the honorable mention list.

—Chuck Yeager

For starters, Delco Freedom, Dura Power and Voyager Batteries are maintenance-free.

That means you never have to give them a second thought. They start you fast and sure when you crank up your engine.

Thanks to Delco's design, early battery failure caused by low fluid levels is prevented. And the built-in "green eye" lets you know the state of charge at a glance.

Delco's got batteries for most cars and trucks, both domestic and imported. Plus batteries for boats and RVs. The limited warranty's good nationwide. Check it out where you shop for auto parts.
