

Frank Allison and the Odd Sox offer rough, punchy and certainly listenable mu-

Allison taps experiences for songs

By Larry O'Connor stalf writer

Frank Allison was alarmed.
Not because his group, Frank Allison and the Odd Sox, had just given a lackluster performance in front of an uninspired audience. No, quite the an uninspired audience. No, quue tue contrary.

The group burned through a 45-minute set, providing a solid round of songs at a recent opening for Adrian Beleva and the Bears at the Nectarine Ballroom in Ann Arbor. Hearty appliause greeted the four-man outfit as they left, a remarkable feat for any opening band.

The sirens that wall in Allison's mind are from a night job he once had while attending Eastern Michigan.

had write attenuing Leastern mean-gan, "I'd sit in this room and all these alarms would go off and I'd have to call the police," said Allison, 27, I'd lead singer of the group. "It was a real drag, It was hard to sleep." So did Allison merely chalk it up as a lousy work experience? Like all cood sonowiters, he wrote a song

. AS A songwriter, Allison is seldom caught napping. A self-professed IN CONCERT

JOE SATHANI
Joe Satriani will perform Friday,
May 6, at Harpos, 14238 Harper, Detroit. Cost is $10 ($12 at the door).
For more information, call 823-8400.

AC/DC
 AC/DC will perform, with special guests L.A. Guns, at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, May 14, at Joe Louis Arena in Detroit. Tickets are $17.50. For more information, call 567-6000.

ROBERT NOLL AND THE people watcher, Allison is always on the lookout for subjects that might make for quirky, catchy numbers. The results are usually interest. The results are usually interest. Ing.

Ing.
Take, for instance, this little ditty, penned by Allison — "The Rodent of Take, for instance, this little city, penned by Allison — "The Rodent of Love."

"My head is light and the orange sky's bright above/One of them's a rat a matter of fact/He thinks that he's the rodent of love."

nes the rodent of love."

And there's plenty more where that came from. While many bands have their own unique bag of songs, few could match the depth that Frank Allison and the Odd Sox have.
The Odd Sox sound is a mix of raw guitar with crystalline vocals. It's rough, punchy and certainly listenable.

According to Allison, there's nothing to it.

"What I consider a song is chord structure, melody and lyrics," said Allison, his long hair tucked under a baseball cap. "Itil just stand there and play it for them (the rest of the band). Then we mull over whether it should be heavy or light. "Usually, these guys just start playing right with mo. Then we send Dan (Beckett, the lead guitarist) times.

NOT BAD bad for a guy who didn't start playing seriously until he foined the Odd Sox.

Frank Allison and the Odd Sox are relatively new mates. Allison started the band three years ago with a group of high school-age fellows.

Things didn't work out. The resurrected Sox include Beckett, John Boyle, bass, and John Seldin, drums, all possessing a wealth of musical resperience.

Boyle, 27, for example, was known as John Dull in England. He was a member of the short-lived punk era, arriving right at the time of the Sex Pistols and the Stranglers.

"The lead singer was double-joint-ed," said Boyle, who is from Toronto. "He would go on stage and the himself up in knots. People in the audience would come up and piek him up and the bird only lasted four gigs."

Frank Allison and the Odd Sox appear to have more durability. The pear to have more durability. The band has an album in the works on Relapse Records in Plymouth, which they plan to have out by the fall.

Currently, the hands 45 "Roden of Love", "Some Odd Girl" is available at local record stores. The single was recorded at Dave Feeny's Tempermill Studios in Livonia. Immediate plans for the band include opening for Joan Jett in Virginia as well as some local dates in Detroit and Ann Arbor. In the past, the band has opened for Alex Chilton and Stid Roeper and Mojo Nixon to name a few.

"YOU DON'T make any money, but you get a really good crowd," said Allison on being an opening act. "Anytime you get a good response, it's not only good in the long run, it's better for you that night."

Crowds, like the one at the Necta-rine, can't help but notice the drive of the band. Allison, complete with an ax murder look, spares no effort. His guitar suffers the most abuse, which often includes a litany of bro-ten strings. He broke nine during one high-energized show.

"We get a good deal (on guitar strings)," Allison said. "We get them for $4 a pack. I'm usually down to the store once a week to buy them."

MUSIC NOTES

Is there no honor amongs thleves? Apparently not.
Jugglers and Thiever recently had $3,000 worth of equipment stolend and $3,000 worth of equipment stolend and the second second

A reward is being offered for any information leading to the recovery of the equipment. Anyone with any info should call 421-3166.

Tanjent Image, a regular on the new music scene in Detroit, is gearing up for its record release party Sunday, May 1, at St. Andrew's Hall in Detroit. "Suranland" is a four-song EP on Nebula Records, featuring tunes "One Nation." "Anytime (Dream Time)." "Suranland" and "Falth." Also on the bill for the evening's festivities will be Hippodrome.

"A couple of the songs we're rock and roll ("Suranland" or "Faith") and the other two were dannies," said Reed Richeard, lead singer for the band.

The disc was recorded at White Room Studios in Grosse Pointe.
Plans include putting out 45s on all jukeboxes throughout the area.

"Unless you have something on vi-

"Unless you have something on vin, you're not really making it," Richard said. "We would like to play the college circuit."

Tanjent Image is certainly no stranger to St. Andrew's Hall. The group has opened for headline acts as well as setting an attendance record for one of the Sunday concert sories shows at the venerable concert hall.

The group, which features James cert hall.

The group, which features James Anders (bass gultar, vocals), Andrew Howell (drums), Gary Watts (keyboards, gultar and vocals) and Joel Wilson (lead gultar) along with Richard, will also be featured on the "Detroit Music Scene" album, due out in June.

The three-member band Hippo-drome is no longer — that's only be-cause they have added a fourth cause they have added a fourth member. Kelib Kingcasmith is the new, acoustic guitarist with the Livonia-based band. He joins Curis Richards, ""We're not changing our sound at all," "said Chris Richards, lead singer and guitarist of Hippodrome. "We're just filling it up."

just filling it up."

The Orange Roughles and J.D.
Lamb recently were monthly "Local Riffs" winners. Along with a year's supply of Rice-Aroni (just kidding), both will be featured on the WRITFM "Local Riffs" compilation disc, scheduled at the end of the year. My conleady on the disc will be See Diek Rona and Civilian.
Dave Feeny, lead guitarist of Orange Roughles, said there's still some interest in the band from record labels. However, if nothing comes about, they'll put together their own album this summer.
The Roughles recently poir in a rousing performance at Psychecu Lounge in Hamtrack. Along with a solid set of original material, the land tossed in a few obscure covers like Argent's "Hold Your flead Up."
What's new with your group?
What's new with your group?

What's new with your group? Drop us a line at Street Beats, Ob-server & Eccentric, 36251 School-craft, Livonia 48150.

JAZZ

Here are the top 10 albums receiving airplay on WJZZ, a jazz station in Detroit.

1. "Acoustic Alchemy," Natural Ele-

2. "Loud Jazz," John Scoffeld. 3. "That Special Part of Me," Onaje

3. "Inat special" a. "Alan Gumbs.
4. "Behind the Sun," Clyde Criner.
5. "Brasil," Manhattan Transfer.
6. "Love Will Conquer All," George

Howard.
7. "Yutaka," Yutaka.
8. "Short Stories," Bob Berg.
9. " . . . Nothing Like the Sun,"

Sting.
10. "The Immigrants," The Zawinel

COLLEGE

Here are the top 10 songs receiv-ing airplay on WAYN-AM, a campus radio station at Wayne State Univer-sity in Detroit.

"One More Try," George Michael.
"Devil Inside," INXS.
"Birth, School, Work, Death," The

3. "Birth, School, work, Death, Jord Godfathers.
4. "20 Killerburts," Gene Loves Jerebel.
5. "Give Your Hands," The Shy.
Michael Bolton.
7. "Techno-Dance," New Order.
8. "Pilay That Funky Music," Rox-

ne. "Behind the Wheel," Depeche

9. "Behind the Mode. 10. "See Want Must Have," Blue Mercedes.

COUNTRY

Here are the top 10 songs receiving airplay on WWWW-FM, a country and western radio station in Detroit.

"Americana," Moe Brandy.
 "I Didn't (Every Chance I Had),"
Johnny Rodrequiz.
 "I Wanna Dance With You," Eddle
Rabbitt.

Rabbitt.

4. "Life Turned Her That Way," Ricky Van Shelton.

5. "I'll Always Come Back," K.T. Os-lin.

5. "Famous Last Words of a Fool," George Strait.
7. "Should Be Easier Than This," Charley Pride.
8. "Love Will Find Its Way to You."

8. "Love Will Find Its Way to You," Reba McIntire. 9. "Santa Fe," The Bellamy Brothers. 10. "Cry, Cry, Cry," Highway 101.

REVIEWS

■ JOE SATRIANI

THIS SONG'S FOR YOU

- Neil Young and the Bluenotes will perform tonight and Tuesday at the Plymouth Rock, 8825 General Dr., Plymouth. For more informa-tion, call 455-9800.

● ROBIN TROWER
Robin Trower and Droggs will perform Monday, April 25, at Harpos, 14238 Harper, Detroit. Tickets are $12.50 in advance and $14.50 at the door. For more information, call 823-6400.

BLUES MISSION
Robert Noil and the Blues Mission
The Greg Stryker Band will perform Wednesday through Saturday, April 27-30, at Jaggers, 3481 Eliza-beth Road, Waterford. For more in-formation, call 681-1700.

● OF ALL THINGS Of All Things, along with The Lay-abouts, will perform Friday, April 29, at Alvin's, 5756 Cass, Detroit. For more information, call 832-2355.

SAVOY BROWN
 Savoy Brown will perform Friday,
 April 29, at Harpos, 14238 Harper,
 Detroit. Cost is $5. For more information, call $23-6400.

TURN BACK

THE CLOCK

- Johnny

Hates Jazz

MEGADETH
 Megadeth will perform with special guests Warlock and Sanctuary at 7:30 p.m. Friday, April 29, at the Royal Oak Music Theatre. Tickets are $17.50. For more information,

ANTON JAMES
 Anton James will appear with Vex
Saturday, April 30, at Third Avenue,
Third Street, half block east of Main Street, Royal Oak. For more information, call 547-4473.

SURANLAND

How do they keep coming up with these guys? Is there some kind of Euro-pop finishing school we Ameri-cans don't know about? What we have on the cover is a group of young, well-groomed, alightly bored-looking Brits. And in-side — slick, danceable pop. Well, survivies survivie. Be a Hero," an anti-war track wedged in among the cool, stylish disco to let listeners know these guys care about more than their hair styles.

But despite its inevitable hit sta-tus, perhaps because of it, there's something a tad too familiar about this debut. signily sortest-sound artists. Au state — slick, danceable pop. Well, surprise, surprise.

This doesn't are more the big.

This of the surprise is surprised to the big.

This doesn't permise, the first single surprised in the surprised and inching its way up Casey Kaem's precious pop chart. Hit status seems all but assured.

Here's another prediction — the title track, a languid tale of romanic loss, will be big news on pop radio this summer.

There's no Johany here; no jazz,

There's no Johany here; no jazz,

this debut.

It's all competent, all listenable, but there's little, at this point, to distinguish JHJ from the boatload of similar British acts that have washed up on our shores since the Duran Duran beachhead a few years ago. Even anti-war sentiments are pro Even anti-war sentiments are pro-forma among young British musi-cians these days. Their sentiments may run deep, yet they come across as superficial. In fact, Johnny Hates Jarz may need a new name — John-ny Needs Soul. — Wayne Peal

- Wayne Peal

There's a blend of synthesized rock numbers and dance mixes here. "Suranland" and "Faith" take the rock route while "One Nation" and "Anytime (Dream Time)" take more of a dance course.

In all four numbers, the synthesiz-In all four numbers, the synthesis-ren angular lines are woven togeth-er to produce a nice dreamscape sound. There are some touches of tamborine and xylophone here and there as well. Does anyone remem-ber Flock of Seaguila? The natural reaction for some would-be to write Tanjent Image's

"Suranland" is not only the first plece of vinyl from Tanjent Image, it's more like a declaration.

The Detroit-based group uses everything in its musical arreads to make this first effort work. "Suranland," a four-song EP on Nebula Records, will make people listen.

ing of Andrew Howell that gives this stuff some life.

If there is a problem here, it's that if there is a problem here, it's that if the problem here, it's that of the problem here, it's that of the problem here is supposed to have direction any any, Granted.

But a finely orchestrated number like "Suranland" could do better without the redden change in riybut in the middle. And it would be not a to have some type warning in "Patist" that the number is going to end.

This EP could use some tightening up in spots, but it's a good first effort nonetheless.

— Larry O'Connôr.

Eclectic Neil gets blue this time around. That's blue like thythm and blue.

Ain't singin' for Spuds . . . "
Such is a radical notion in these divides the service of the strongest of "This sings on one song in that strangely pleasurable voice. Mostly, the band does that.

The 10-piece Bluenotes put out what seems to be a wall of sound. There are six horn players — tenor, alto and barrione sax, trombone and two trumpets.

It's a far cry from those folkit early albums or the more revent: "It ain't. Meli's guitar playing is interesting as always. He goes for a clean, however, the song sing in salways. He goes for a clean, however, the song sing in the strangely players and the strangely sound and gets it.

Neil's way the goes for a clean, however, the song sing in the strangely players.

Neil's way the goes for a clean, however, the song sing in the strangely players and the strangely strangely strangely the strangely strangely without trying.

Erian Lysught

ered. Why, there's even "I Don't Want to this summer.

There's no Johnny here; no jazz, either. Nonetheless, JHJ seems to have its moves down and bases cov-

