Making life a little easier

The Westown Lions Club has made life a little easier for two blind residents of Medicos Recovery Care Center.

Nadine Northcross, blind for two years as a result of diabetes, got a white cane to give her more freedom and confidence.

John McGrath, blind for most of his life and now confined to a wheelchair with arthritis, wanted a Braille watch. He can read Braille, but the Lions also will provide McGrath with a trainer to show him how to use the watch most effectively.

The gifts were given by Sidney Brodie, Westown's service investigator, who responded to the requests made by Diane Derwood, the care center's activities director.

"It was both a privilege and a pleasure," Brodie said, when he gave the gifts.

Westown received its charter 45 years ago and since has been dedicated to helping the disadvantaged. It makes annual contributions to Leader Dog School, Michigan Eye Bank and Penrichon Center for the Blind.

The club meets at 12:15 p.m. every Tuesday in Vladimiers Restaurant, on Grand River west of Eight Mile Road.

Inquiries on club membership or the club's assistance to the blind are taken by Donald Runde, 855-2727.

Free class for diabetics set

A series of six diabetes classes begins at 7 p.m. Thursday, May 19 in the auditorium of Oakland County Health Division's South office, 27725 Greenfield.

The classes are for adult diabetics and their family members. They are taught by a public health nurse and a registered dietitian. Topics that will be discussed include the nature of the disease, dietary management, medications and suggestions for coping with everyday problems.

There are no fees charged for these classes. However, pre-registration is necessary, made by calling the division, 424-7042.

Classes for expectant parents set

Oakland County Health Division will offer a series of six Expectant Parent Classes beginning at 7 p.m. Tuesday, May 17, the Southfield office of the Health Division, 27725 Greenfield Road.

Classes will be taught by public health nurses. There is no charge for attending the series of classes, but pre-registration is requested, made by calling the division, 424-7042.

Topics will include maternal physical changes, good nutrition, growth and development of the fetus and the baby, labor and delivery, infant care and parenting.
